PHIL SAVAGE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Phil Savage was named Senior Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 6, 2005. Savage, a 15-year veteran of the NFL, is known throughout the NFL as one of the league's top talent evaluators. Savage implements the organizational strategy for football operations and is responsible for all pro and college personnel acquisitions. Savage works directly with Head Coach Romeo Crennel in determining goals and needs for the team and arranging financial guidelines and parameters for contract negotiations and budgets.

The Browns finished the 2005 campaign with a respectable 6-10 record. Savage immediately made plans for the 2006 season and was aggressive in free agency by signing eight players. Savage addressed several offensive needs by signing OL LeCharles Bentley (New Orleans), OL Kevin Shaffer (Atlanta), OL Bob Hallen (San Diego), TE Darnell Dinkins (Baltimore), and veteran WR Joe Jurevicius (Seattle). Defensively, Savage added leadership by inking 12-year veteran LB Willie McGinest (New England) and 15-year veteran NT Ted Washington (Oakland) and also added P Dave Zastudil (Baltimore) to solidify the special teams. With the 2006 NFL Draft, Savage added ten draft selections and targeted LB Kamerion Wimbley (Florida State) with the 13th selection, tabbed LB D'Qwell Jackson (Maryland) in the second-round and WR Travis Wilson (Oklahoma) in the third-round.

Savage worked with owner Randy Lerner to bring Romeo Crennel on board as head coach for the 2005 season and jointly, Savage and Crennel, orchestrated a rebuilding of the football operations for the Browns organization. In 2005, Savage worked immediately to bring in notable veteran players via free agency (OL Joe Andruzzi, DB Gary Baxter, OL Cooney Coleman, S Brian Russell, LB Matt Stewart) and by trade (RB Reuben Droughns), along with using eight draft selections to bring an infusion of youth to the roster, including first-round WR Braylon Edwards, second-round selection S Brodney Pool and third-round pick QB Charlie Frye.

Prior to rejoining the Browns, Savage spent the previous nine seasons with the Baltimore organization, including the last two (2003-04) as the Ravens' Director of Player Personnel and worked directly with Baltimore general manager Ozzie Newsome to oversee both college and pro scouting. In his nine years with the Ravens organization, Savage witnessed the franchise earn a 72-71-1 regular season record during that span, including three post-season appearances with a 5-2 record, and the highlight—winning Super Bowl XXXV over the N.Y. Giants in 2000 after a 12-4 record.

During his tenure in Baltimore (1996-2004), the Ravens drafted 10 pro bowlers: T Jonathan Ogden (D1a, 1996), LB Ray Lewis (D1b, 1996), WR/PR Jermaine Lewis (D5, 1996), LB Peter Boulware (D1, 1997), DB Chris McAlister (D1, 1999), RB Jamal Lewis (D1a, 2000), LB Adalius Thomas (D6, 2000), TE Todd Heap (D1, 2001), S Ed Reed (D1, 2002) and LB Terrell Suggs (D1a, 2003). Other major contributors include LB Jamie Sharper (D2a, 1997), C Jeff Mitchell (D5, 1997), DB Duane Starks (D1, 1998), WR Brandon Stokley (D4a, 1999), G Edwin Mulitalo (D4b, 1999), WR Travis Taylor (D1b, 2000), DB Gary Baxter (D2, 2001), LB Edgerton Hartwell (D4, 2001), DE Tony Weaver (D2, 2002), P Dave Zastudil (D4, 2002), TE Terry Jones (D5, 2002), RB Chester Taylor (D6c, 2002), S Chad Williams (D6d, 2002), and QB Kyle Boller (D1b, 2003).

Savage spent the first seven years of his career in the coaching ranks. In 1987, he joined Bill Curry's staff at the University of Alabama as a graduate assistant. In 1988-89, he coached the TE's before following offensive coordinator Homer Smith to UCLA in a similar capacity. After one season under head coach Terry Donohue, Savage was hired as RBs/TEs coach for the San Antonio Riders of the World League.

One month passed before the Cleveland Browns called and Savage left for Cleveland to become part of Bill Belichick's first coaching staff in the spring of 1991. For the next three seasons, Savage worked under then-defensive coordinator Nick Saban (now head coach of the Miami Dolphins). During that time, Savage assisted with the DBs, analyzed opponent tapes, compiled scouting reports and in his first exposure to scouting, conducted campus workouts in preparation for the college draft.

In 1994, Savage moved to the player personnel side of the business full-time as an area scout on the West Coast and was elevated to national scout for the 1995 season. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, he became the director of college scouting, a post he held for seven years before being promoted to director of player personnel prior to the 2003 NFL Draft.

During the offseason, Phil enjoys working on two football-related projects, Camp Savage and Winners Influence. In the summer of 2005, he conducted his 15th annual skills camp for high school quarterbacks and receivers in his hometown of Mobile, Ala. Over 1,100 athletes have participated over the years and many of them have continued their playing careers at over 30 colleges, including LSU QB JaMarcus Russell and West Virginia signal caller, Pat White. Phil and his brother Joe, a pastor in Lakeland, Florida, have partnered together in organizing Winners Influence. Their idea is to "influence the influencers" across the nation by ministering to NFL coaches and scouts, business leaders and pastors. Since the Ravens' Super Bowl victory, Phil has shared his Christian testimony with over 70 audiences coast-to-coast and, in 2001 he and Joe assembled a combined football camp and mission trip to Cancun, Mexico. There, seven Ravens' players, coaches and scouts spoke in several elementary schools and worked with the Ninos Mexicanos football players.

Savage attended Murphy High School in Mobile before playing football and baseball at the University of the South (Sewanee, Tenn.). He earned a B.A. in English and was a three-time All-Conference shortstop in baseball. He received a Master's degree in physical education from the University of Alabama in 1989.

Savage's wife, Dorothy, is an accomplished theatrical actress. Savage was born April 7, 1965 in Mobile, Ala.

ROMEO CRENNEL

HEAD COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS (HEAD COACH): 2ND

YEAR IN NFL: 26TH

Romeo Crennel was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns on Feb. 8, 2005, the 11th full-time head coach in franchise history. Crennel returned to Cleveland in 2005 after serving as the Browns defensive coordinator in 2000 and along with Phil Savage helped rebuild the football operations. Crennel led the Browns to a respectable 6-10 record in his first year as a head coach. His resume includes 36 years of coaching experience, including 25 years in the NFL.

Crennel and Savage made plans for the upcoming 2006 season and were aggressive in free agency by signing eight players. Crennel's relationship with 15-year veteran NT Ted Washington (Oakland) and 12-year veteran LB Willie McGinest (New England) was a key component in bring both players to Cleveland. In addition, the Browns added OL LeCharles Bentley (New Orleans), TE Darnell Dinkins (Baltimore), OL Bob Hallen (San Diego), WR Joe Jurevicius (Seattle), OL Kevin Shaffer (Atlanta) and P Dave Zastudil (Baltimore) in free agency. With the 2006 NFL Draft, ten draft selections were added including LB Kamerion Wimbley (Florida State) with the 13th selection, LB D'Qwell Jackson (Maryland) in the second-round and WR Travis Wilson (Oklahoma) in the third-round.

In 2005, Crennel brought a 3-4 defensive scheme to Cleveland and witnessed his defense T-16th in defense (316.8 ypg) and ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense (179.2 ypg). Crennel also committed to run the football on offense and witnessed RB Reuben Droughns become the first 1,000-yard rusher in twenty years. Crennel and Savage brought a veteran presence to the Browns via free agency (OL Joe Andruzzi, DB Gary Baxter, OL Cooney Coleman, S Brian Russell, LB Matt Stewart) and by trade (RB Reuben Droughns). They also used eight draft choices to bring an infusion of youth to the roster, including first-round selection WR Braylon Edwards, second-round pick S Brodney Pool and third-round selection QB Charlie Frye.

Prior to joining the Browns, Crennel was widely recognized as one of the top assistant coaches in the NFL. He crafted the defense for the New England Patriots and helped the Patriots win three Super Bowl's (2001, 2003-04). Crennel's defense played an integral role in the Patriots' 24-21 win over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX, as the defense forced four turnovers, put pressure on Eagles QB Donovan McNabb with four sacks and limited the Eagles running game to 45 net yards rushing.

In the 2004 postseason, New England allowed only 51 points (17 points per game) in three postseason games, including a 20-3 win over Indianapolis in an AFC Divisional Playoff game, a 41-27 win at Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship Game and the 24-21 win over Philadelphia in Super Bowl XXXIX. In New England's AFC Divisional Playoff victory over Indianapolis, the Patriots did not allow the Colts in the endzone during their 20-3 victory, marking the first time in NFL history that a team led the league in scoring during the regular season and did not score a touchdown in a playoff game.

During the 2004 regular season, the Patriots ranked ninth in the NFL in total defense (310.8 ypg), sixth in run defense (98.3 ypg) and 17th in pass defense (212.5 ypg). Crennel's defensive unit was tied for third in the NFL with 45 sacks, tied for second with 260 points allowed (16.3 ppg) on the year, allowed nine rushing TDs on the season and ranked third in the AFC in red zone defense (40.8%). The defense recorded this feat using 10 different starting lineups.

In 2003, he was recognized by the Pro Football Writers of America as the NFL's Assistant Coach of the Year. The New England defense was among the best units in NFL history, propelling the Patriots to a 15-game winning streak that culminated with a 32-29 victory over Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII. New England allowed a league-low and franchise-record 14.9 points per game, while also leading the league with 29 interceptions. The dominance of the defense was evident by the team's three shutouts, equaling the franchise shutout total from the previous 17 seasons combined. The Patriots defense was at its best at home, where it allowed only 9.6 points per game and surrendered just four touchdowns in the regular season. During one stretch, the Patriots did not allow a touchdown on 62 consecutive opponents' possessions at home, a streak that spanned more than five games of clock time. New England was the first team in 65 years to keep its opponent out of the end zone in four consecutive home games in a season. The Patriots defense provided some potent offense of its own, leading the NFL with six defensive touchdowns, including five interceptions returned for scores, tying a team record.

Crennel returned to the New England Patriots when he was named the defensive coordinator on Bill Belichick's staff on Feb. 1, 2001. In 2001, the defense played an integral role in propelling the Patriots to a season-ending win streak to claim the first Super Bowl title for the franchise. The 2001 Patriots surrendered just 272 points (17.0 ppg), ranking sixth in the league for fewest points allowed. In its last five regular season games, the defense surrendered just seven field goals and one touchdown. The Patriots won all five of those games and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in three years.

Crennel was reunited with Belichick in 2001 as the two coaches began coaching together as assistants on Ray Perkins' staff for the New York Giants in 1981. The 2004 season marked the 18th campaign for Crennel and Belichick together, during which time they have earned five Super Bowl titles, six conference titles and eight division titles. While with the Patriots, Crennel and Belichick have contributed to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, in addition to New England's AFC title in 1996.

The Patriots defense created opportunities for the offense in 2001 by recording 22 interceptions (second in the AFC, sixth in the NFL), 12 more than they had in 2000. Five of those interceptions were returned for touchdowns, setting a single-season franchise record. In the playoffs, DB Ty Law added another interception, which he returned 47 yards for a touchdown in the 20-17 victory over the St. Louis Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI.

Crennel, who was the defensive line coach for the Patriots from 1993 to 1996, spent three seasons with the New York Jets (1997-99) and a season as the defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns (2000). During his season in Cleveland, the Browns recorded 42 sacks, a 17-sack improvement from the 1999 season.

In his three seasons as Jets' defensive line coach, the New York defense was among the best in the NFL, never allowing more than 20 points per game for a season. In 1997, he successfully incorporated a rotation of six new defensive linemen on a unit that allowed just 287 total points (17.9 ppg), second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. The following season, he added four new linemen to his rotation and the formula contributed to an improvement from the year before as the defense allowed just 16.6 points per game, finishing second in the league.

His first tenure in New England was a four-year assignment as Bill Parcells' defensive line coach, beginning in 1993 and ending with an AFC Championship and Super Bowl XXXI appearance in January of 1997. In 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs for the first time in eight years after winning their last seven games of the regular season. The defense allowed just 13.3 points per game during that seven-game stretch. In 1996, the Patriots defense allowed just 12.8 points per game in the final five contests of the regular season to propel the team back to the playoffs.

Crennel began his professional coaching career in 1981 as a special assignments/special teams/defensive assistant coach with the New York Giants. He became the special teams coach in 1983 and was assigned the defensive line position in 1990, a position he has since coached for 14 seasons. In 12 seasons in New York (1981-92), the Giants qualified for the playoffs six times, won three division titles and two Super Bowl championships. In his first season in New York, the Giants qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1963.

His first Super Bowl championship with the Giants staff was following the 1986 season as special teams coach and a 39-20 win over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. The Giants also won Super Bowl XXV, 20-19, over Buffalo as Crennel served as defensive line coach.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Western Kentucky, in 1970. He was named defensive line coach the following season in 1971. In 1975, he started a three-year tenure at Texas Tech as a defensive assistant on Parcells' staff. In 1978, he was named the defensive ends coach at Mississippi. After two seasons at Ole Miss, he accepted a position at Georgia Tech in 1980, where he spent his final season in the collegiate ranks before being hired by the Giants in 1981.

Crennel was a four-year starter (1966-69) as a defensive lineman at Western Kentucky. After three seasons as one of the Hilltoppers' top tacklers, he was elected team captain as a senior. When the Western Kentucky offense struggled early in the season, Crennel willingly gave up what would have been a sure shot at all-conference honors as a defensive lineman to fill in at offensive tackle. The move helped solidify the offensive line and earned Crennel team MVP honors.

Crennel is a native of Lynchburg, Va. He was a high school standout at both Fort Knox (Ky.) High and Central High (Amherst, Va.). He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Kentucky, and then earned his master's degree while serving as a graduate assistant for the school in 1970. His brother, Carl, played linebacker for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1970 and played in the CFL from 1971-81 for five different teams. Romeo and his wife, Rosemary, have three daughters, Lisa Tulley, Tiffany Crennel and Kristin Cullinane.

DAVE ATKINS

RUNNING BACKS COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 21ST

Dave Atkins is entering his second season as running backs coach. Last season, Atkins worked with Browns RB Reuben Droughns to set a franchise record with 309 carries in a season and rush for 1,232 yards, becoming the first Browns RB to top the 1,000-yard mark since 1985. Atkins' impression helped Droughns 1,232 rushing yards rank sixth in the AFC and his 1,601 yards from scrimmage (1,232 rushing and 369 receiving) rank eighth in the NFL.

Atkins spent the previous five seasons (2000-04) as the New Orleans Saints running backs coach and brings 21 years of NFL coaching experience to the Browns along with stops in Philadelphia, New England, Arizona, Minnesota and New Orleans.

Atkins' impact on the Saints running game from 2000-04 was evident with the Saints featuring a 1,000 yard runner in five consecutive seasons, establishing a franchise record, and erasing a ten-year void of not having a 1,000-yard rusher dating back to the 1990 season.

In 2004, Atkins worked with RB Deuce McAllister, who rushed for 1,074 yards. In 2003, McAllister was voted to the Pro Bowl for the second-consecutive season, and ranked fourth in the league with 1,641 yards rushing and also added a career-high 67 receptions.

In Atkins' first season in New Orleans (2000), the club ranked eighth in the NFL in rushing with 2,068 yards, the highest the team had ranked since finishing third in 1987. That total was achieved despite the loss of starting RB Ricky Williams in Week 11. The Saints still averaged 113.7 yards over the final six contests, with the running game serving as a key factor in capturing the NFC West title.

Prior to joining New Orleans, Atkins served as tight ends coach with Minnesota for three seasons (1997-99) and had his first stint with New Orleans as running back coach in 1996. Atkins also brings NFL offensive coordinator experience to the coaching staff, having served in that capacity at Arizona from 1994-95. In 1994, the Cardinals led the NFL in time of possession (32:37), and the next season Arizona had one of the league's best backfield duos in FB Larry Centers and RB Garrison Hearst.

In 1993, Atkins joined New England as running backs coach. In his only season with the Patriots, New England averaged 111.3 rushing yards per contest, including a 1,088-yard effort by Leonard Russell, who finished second among AFC running backs. Atkins broke into the NFL ranks with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1986. He worked with numerous facets of the Eagles' coaching staff during his seven-year stay, including running backs (1986-90), special teams (1991), and tight ends (1992).

After playing three years of pro football, Atkins started his college coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Texas-El Paso, in 1979. He worked with the running backs and with the kicking game for two seasons at UTEP before joining the staff at San Diego State in 1981, where he spent the next five years.

Born May 18, 1949 in Victoria, Texas, Atkins and his wife, Cynthia, have a son, Dave Jr., and a daughter, Jasmine.

COACHING BACKGROUND

MAURICE CARTHON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Maurice Carthon is entering his second season as offensive coordinator and will oversee an offensive unit that witnessed key starters signed to contract extensions, the return of top draft choices to the offensive arsenal and several new faces via free agency.

During the off-season, the Browns made a major commitment to the offensive side of the ball by resigning RB Reuben Droughns to a three-year contract extension, as last season Droughns ranked sixth in the AFC with 1,232 yards rushing and became the first Browns back since 1985 to top the 1,000-yard rushing plateau. The Browns added several players in free agency, including offensive linemen LeCharles Bentley and Kevin Shaffer, along with veteran wide receiver Joe Jurevicius. Top draft choices WR Braylon Edwards and TE Kellen Winslow are expected to return from season ending injuries to add offensive weapons for young QB Charlie Frye.

Carthon joined the Browns in 2005 and led an offensive unit that featured the return of a 1,000-yard rusher with Reuben Droughns rushing for 1,232 yards and ranked eighth in the NFL with 1,601 yards from scrimmage (1,232 rushing and 369 receiving). Carthon also worked with rookie quarterback Charlie Frye as he started the final five regular season games (2-3 record as a starter).

Carthon joined Cleveland after serving as the Dallas Cowboys offensive coordinator for two seasons (2003-04). Carthon's resume includes 13 years of coaching experience and eight years of playing experience in the NFL. Carthon was on the same coaching staff as Browns head coach Romeo Crennel from 1997-1999 with the New York Jets under Bill Parcells and also from 1994-1996 with the New England Patriots.

Carthon worked as the Dallas Cowboys offensive coordinator from 2003-04, overseeing game plan preparations, as well as working with the club's running backs. In 2004 with the Cowboys, Carthon directed an offense that featured TE Jason Witten, who led the NFC with 87 receptions and 980 yards, rookie first-round draft choice RB Julius Jones, who totaled 819 yards, and QB Vinny Testaverde, who threw for 3,532 yards. The Cowboys ranked 14th offensively (324.8 avg.) in the NFL, including 15th passing (214 avg.) and 20th rushing (110.8 avg.).

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Carthon served as the Detroit Lions offensive coordinator in 2002 after originally joining the team as the running backs coach in 2001. In his two seasons with the Lions, Carthon was instrumental in helping increase the Lions' running game average in 2001 (4.0 avg.) and 2002 (4.1 avg.). In addition, RB James Stewart posted a career-best 4.8 avg. in 2001 and then came back in 2002 to record his second career 1,000-yard rushing season with 1,021 yards on 231 carries (4.4 avg.).

Before going to Detroit, Carthon served as assistant head coach/running backs coach for the New York Jets in 2000, which followed three years (1997-99) as the Jets' running backs coach under Bill Parcells. During his time in New York, the Jets produced four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from a running back after the franchise had experienced only four 1,000-yard rushing seasons in its first 37-years of existence. Pro Bowl back Curtis Martin rushed for 1,204 yards—his sixth 1,000 yard rushing season—and nine touchdowns in 2000, after setting the team's single season rushing record with 1,464 yards in 1999. Martin also finished third on the team with 45 receptions for 259 yards in 1999. Under Carthon's direction, the Jets averaged 122.6 rushing yards-per-game, ranking seventh in the AFC and 12th in the NFL.

In 1998, Carthon worked two new starting backs in Keith Byars and Martin into the Jets' offensive scheme, helping Martin to 1,287 yards, his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season and the second best rushing total in club history. The explosiveness of the Jets running game came to light vs. Indianapolis on Sept. 20, when the club amassed 302 yards on the ground, the second best rushing total in a game in team history. Prior to the arrival of Martin, Carthon directed Adrian Murrell to become just the second running back in Jets history to have consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (Freeman McNeil, 1984-85), when he ran for 1,088 yards.

Carthon began his coaching career in New England in 1994 as an offensive assistant on Parcells' staff and shifted to coaching the Patriots' running backs and was a special teams assistant in 1995. He became the sole running backs coach in 1996 and was partly responsible for the NFL's second highest scoring unit in 1996 (26.1 points per game) with New England. It was with the Patriots that Carthon first became strongly tied to the development of three-time Pro Bowler and current Jets' RB Curtis Martin. Carthon began working with Martin in 1995, a season which saw the unheralded third-round draft choice set single-season rushing records with 1,487 yards and 14 touchdowns on 368 carries, and became the only rookie selected to play in the Pro Bowl, while also garnering Rookie-of-the-Year honors.

A veteran of eight NFL seasons as a player, Carthon began his career in 1985 when he signed with the New York Giants as a free agent. He played the next seven seasons with the team and was a key member of Parcells' 1986 and 1990 Super Bowl championship teams as a punishing blocking fullback. He finished his NFL playing career with the Indianapolis Colts in 1992. Carthon never missed a game due to injury during his career, and he finished his playing days with 950 rushing yards and two touchdowns in 300 attempts and caught 90 passes for 745 yards and two touchdowns.

Prior to signing with the Giants, Carthon began his professional playing career as an eighth-round draft pick of the USFL's New Jersey Generals. He played for the Generals from 1983-85, and totaled 2,102 yards rushing and helped pave the way for Herschel Walker, the league's leading rusher. In 1984, Carthon started all 18 games and finished the season with a career-high 1,042 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns.

Carthon twice earned All-Southland Conference honors while starring at Arkansas State University and led the team in rushing with 682 yards as a senior team captain. He attended Osceola (Ark.) High School and was named the state MVP in basketball and twice earned all-conference honors in football.

Born on April 24, 1961, in Chicago, Ill., Carthon earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and science from Arkansas State and was honored as the Osceola Man-of-the-Year in 1991.

BEN COATES

TIGHT ENDS COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 2ND

Ben Coates is entering his second season as tight ends coach. His resume includes four years of coaching experience and 10 years of playing experience in the NFL. Coates was an All-Pro tight end on the New England Patriots with Browns head coach Romeo Crennel from 1993-96. His NFL career included five Pro Bowl appearances (1994-98).

Coates was named the head coach of his alma mater Livingstone College in December 2004 prior to coming to Cleveland. In 2004, Coates served a coaching internship with the Dallas Cowboys and under the tutelage of his former NFL coach Bill Parcells, he assisted with the tight ends. Prior to the Cowboys, Coates served as the offensive line and tight ends intern with the NFL Europe's Frankfurt Galaxy.

Coates began his coaching career when he retired from the NFL after winning the Super Bowl with the Baltimore Ravens in 2000. In 2001, he became the tight ends coach under former Livingstone College head coach Gregory Richardson. He had responsibilities over tight ends and receivers, quarterbacks, and offensive linemen. He was also the offensive coordinator under former Livingstone head coach George Johnson from 2002-2003.

In 1991, Coates was drafted by the New England Patriots with their second pick in the fifth round. From 1991-99, Coates became the Patriots all-time leading receiver at tight end. In 2000, he teamed up with Shannon Sharpe and the Baltimore Ravens for the Super Bowl run. When his year long contract expired, he left the NFL as the fourth all-time leading receiver at tight end in NFL history behind Ozzie Newsome, Shannon Sharpe and Kellen Winslow. Coates played in 158 games with 499 receptions for 5,555 yards and 50 career touchdowns.

Coates was born on Aug. 16, 1969 in Greenwood, S.C. and earned a degree in sports management from Livingstone College.

CARL CRENNEL II

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 2ND

Carl Crennel II is in his second season as offensive quality control coach with the Browns. Crennel came to Cleveland from West Virginia Tech University, where he spent the previous two seasons (2003-04) as the director of football operations/assistant football coach.

Prior to arriving at West Virginia Tech University, Crennel was the special teams coordinator and defensive line coach for Duquesne University. He was on the Dukes staff that went 11-0 during the 2002 regular season only losing to the University of Albany in the ECAC (East Coast Athletic Conference) Classic. All four members of Crennel's front four that season finished with all-conference honors and two were named to Don Hansen's All-American team. He coached Browns' DB Leigh Bodden on special teams while at Duquesne.

Prior to his foray into college football for the second time, Crennel coached the offensive and defensive lines and special teams for the Jacksonville Tomcats of arenafootball2 (af2). In 2000, he coached the Erie Invaders of the Indoor Football League as the defensive coordinator and assistant to the head coach.

His first opportunity in coaching college football was with his alma mater Robert Morris University. Crennel got his start under former New York Jets head coach Joe Walton as an assistant special teams coordinator/defensive line coach.

Crennel graduated from Robert Morris University in 1997 with a degree in communications. He was a three-time all-state football player, wrestler and weightlifter at Orange Park (Fla.) High School. Crennel is the nephew of Browns Head Coach Romeo Crennel and the son of Carl Crennel. Crennel, who was born on Sept. 7, 1974 in Montreal, Quebec, is the son of West Virginia Hall of Fame middle guard Carl Crennel (1967-69). Carl Sr. a three-time All-American at WVU, was part of the 1970 Pittsburgh Steelers rookie class that included Mel Blount and Terry Bradshaw. Carl Sr. played one year for the Steelers and one season for the St. Louis Cardinals before embarking on a successful 11-year career in the Canadian Football League.

JEFF DAVIDSON

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Jeff Davidson was promoted to assistant head coach/offensive line coach on Jan. 21, 2006. Davidson is in his second season with the Browns as he served the 2005 season as offensive line coach. Davidson worked with a newly formed offensive line, which featured three new starters, including veteran guards Joe Andruzzi and Cosey Coleman, to help the Browns running game end a twenty-year drought as RB Reuben Droughns rushed for 1,232 yards and became the first Browns back since 1985 to top the 1,000-yard mark.

Davidson is entering his 16th season in the NFL, including his 12th as an NFL assistant coach after playing four seasons with the Denver Broncos (1990-92) and New Orleans Saints (1994). Davidson coached on the New England Patriots sidelines for eight seasons (1997-2004), where he contributed to five playoff performances, including four division titles, three conference titles and three Super Bowl championships. From 2002-04, Davidson served as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach in New England.

In 2004, Davidson worked with offensive line coach Dante Scarnecchia to emphasize consistency along the offensive line as there were only three lineup changes all season. The Patriots' offensive line had the same starting lineup for the final 13 regular season games, and all three postseason contests, including Super Bowl XXXIX. As a collective unit, the offensive line helped RB Corey Dillon gain 1,635 yards on the year and helped Dillon top the 100-yard mark eight times. In addition, the offensive line helped the Patriots ground game feature big play potential as there were 54 runs of 10 yards or more during the 2004 season. The Patriots offensive line protected QB Tom Brady and allowed only 26 sacks all season, which ranked sixth in the NFL in sacks allowed.

Davidson also assisted the tight ends in 2004, and helped the tight ends become a key ingredient in the Patriots offensive system with nine pass plays of 20 yards or more. TE Daniel Graham tied for the team lead with seven touchdowns and LB Mike Vrabel and TE Christian Fauria added two touchdowns each to give the tight ends a collective 11 touchdowns on the season.

Prior to the 2002 season, Davidson added the tight end responsibilities along with his assistant offensive line coaching duties. As a result, in 2002 Patriots tight ends had 58 catches, more than three times their production from the previous year, and TE Christian Fauria led the team with seven touchdowns, the most by a Patriots tight end since Coates had eight in 1997. In 2003, the tight ends improved their offensive production yet again with

Graham combining with Fauria for 66 receptions and six touchdowns. In addition, the Patriots offensive line did not allow a sack in any of their three postseason games as New England claimed its second title in three seasons with a victory in Super Bowl XXXVIII.

Davidson originally joined the Patriots as the tight ends coach in 1997, as TE Ben Coates led the team with 66 receptions. From 1998-2001, Davidson accepted the responsibilities as an assistant offensive line coach, returning his focus to a position he played professionally for four seasons before pursuing his coaching career.

Davidson began his NFL coaching career in 1995 with the New Orleans Saints as a volunteer assistant. He gained valuable coaching experience under the guidance of offensive line coach Jon Matsko on Jim Mora's staff. In 1996, he was named offensive assistant, responsible for the breakdown of game tapes, opponent scouting and self-scouting. He also maintained a number of on-field coaching responsibilities.

Davidson earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior and was a four-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Ohio State. He was drafted in the fifth round of the 1990 NFL draft by the Denver Broncos and moved into the starting lineup in just his second season. He started 16 games in 1991, including two playoff games, at left tackle. In 1992, he started every game at left guard. Davidson was released by the Broncos in 1993 and was signed by the New Orleans Saints as a free agent in 1994. He was on the active roster for the first seven games of the season, but suffered a shoulder injury that sidelined him for the remainder of the year and ultimately brought an end to his playing career.

Jeffrey John Davidson was born Oct. 3, 1967 in Akron, Ohio. He attended Westerville (Ohio) North High School, where he earned Parade All-American honors as a senior. He was a two-sport prep letterman, starring in football (3 letters) and track (4 letters). Jeff and his wife, Judi, have two sons, Nicholas and Alexander.

TODD GRANTHAM

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Todd Grantham is entering his second season as defensive coordinator. The fiery Grantham led a defensive unit last season that converted to a new 3-4 defensive scheme and finished first in the AFC in red zone defense (44% TD percentage), fourth in the NFL in pass defense (179.2 ypg), 11th in points allowed (17.7 ppg) and T-16th in total defense (316.8 ypg).

Grantham will lead a defensive unit in 2006 that witnessed a major commitment as key members were resigned to contract extensions and veterans added in free agency. The Browns made a statement by resigning three key contributors on the defensive front including LB Andra Davis, who led the Browns with 199 tackles in 2005, DB Leigh Bodden, who led the team last season with 20 PBU and had a career-high 59 tackles and DL Orpheus Roye, who had a career-high 95 tackles in 2005. Through free agency, the Browns added veteran DT Ted Washington, who brings 15 years of experience, and LB Willie McGinest, a 12-year veteran pass rushing specialist at the outside linebacker position.

Grantham came to the Browns with six years of NFL coaching experience with Houston (2002-04) and Indianapolis (1999-2001) as a defensive line coach and also brings nine additional years of coaching experience from the collegiate level.

Prior to joining the Browns, Grantham served as the defensive line coach for the Houston Texans. In 2004, Grantham's line worked in a 3-4 defensive scheme and the Texans defense ranked 13th in the NFL against the run and had a streak of seven consecutive games without allowing a rushing TD (10/10/04 - 11/28/04).

In 2003, Grantham's defensive line unit was devastated by injuries, as NT Seth Payne suffered a season ending knee injury in week two and Pro Bowl DE Gary Walker played in just four games due to shoulder and toe injuries. Despite the injuries, Grantham was able to mix and match his defensive linemen effectively as DT Jerry Deloach collected a career-high 109 tackles and NT Steve Martin racked up 92 stops in only 14 games. In 2002, Grantham's three starters (Gary Walker, Seth Payne, Jerry Deloach) all produced career-high numbers in tackles and Walker earned his second Pro Bowl invitation after racking up 115 tackles and 6.5 sacks.

Grantham arrived in Houston in 2002 after spending the previous three seasons in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts. Grantham's charges registered 96 sacks over three seasons, helping the Colts post a 29-19 record and advance to the playoffs twice. Indianapolis' 10-win improvement from 1998 to 1999 marked the greatest one-season turnaround in league history. In 1999 and 2000, the Colts posted 56 sacks, the highest two-year total for the club since it moved to Indianapolis.

Prior to his stint in Indianapolis, Grantham served three seasons as the defensive line coach at Michigan State (1996-98). He added the title of assistant head coach in his final season in East Lansing in 1998. Michigan State ranked 19th in total defense in 1996 and 13th in 1997, making consecutive bowl trips.

Grantham also spent six seasons (1990-95) at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, the final two as defensive line coach. In 1995, the Hokies ranked first nationally in rushing defense, fifth in scoring defense and 10th in total defense. Virginia Tech racked up 50 sacks en route to the Big East title and a Sugar Bowl triumph over Texas in 1995. Grantham coached defensive ends and inside linebackers from 1990-91 and defensive tackles from 1992-93.

Grantham played guard and tackle for the Hokies from 1984-88. He earned second-team All-South and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. Grantham earned a bachelor's degree in sports management. A native of Pulaski, Va., Grantham and his wife, Paige, have a son, Corbin, and a daughter, Olivia.

MIKE HALUCHAK

LINEBACKERS COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 21ST

Mike Haluchak is entering his second season as linebackers coach. Prior to joining the Browns, Haluchak served as linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars for two seasons (2003-04) and has 20 years of NFL coaching experience.

Haluchak joined Jacksonville from St. Louis, where he coached for three seasons (2000-02), including an appearance in Super Bowl XXXVI. Haluchak guided the Rams' second-round draft choice Tommy Polley to the All-Rookie team in 2000. In addition, he has coached players to six Pro Bowls: Jesse Armstead (1997-99), Ken Harvey (1995-96) and Junior Seau (1991).

Haluchak began his NFL coaching career with San Diego in 1986 and spent six seasons with the Chargers. He has also coached with the Cincinnati Bengals (1992-93), Washington Redskins (1994-96) and N.Y. Giants (1997-99).

Haluchak was a high school coach in Southern California from 1972-75 and entered the collegiate ranks as a graduate assistant at USC (1976-77). Haluchak moved to Cal State-Fullerton in 1978 as defensive backfield coach. Haluchak's first tour as a linebackers coach was at Pacific (1979-80). Haluchak coached at California (1981), North Carolina State (1982) and then coached three seasons with the Oakland Invaders of the USFL (1983-85).

Haluchak played linebacker and safety at Southern California during one of the most memorable periods in the storied history of USC football. He played in the 1969 and 1970 Rose Bowl games against Ohio State and Michigan.

Haluchak was born Nov. 28, 1949 in Concord, Calif. He holds a degree in history from Southern California and a master's degree in secondary education from California Lutheran. Haluchak is married to his wife, Carol.

ORGANIZATION

JOHN LOTT*STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACHYEAR W/ BROWNS: 2NDYEAR IN NFL: 10TH

John Lott is entering his second season as strength and conditioning coach. Lott, who was the first coach hired by Browns head coach Romeo Crennel, joined the Browns after serving in the same capacity with the New York Jets for eight years (1997-2004), and worked with Browns' head coach Romeo Crennel on the Jets staff from 1997-99.

A native of Denton, Texas, Lott has earned a reputation as one of the NFL's most demanding strength and conditioning coaches, consistently challenging the players with off-the-field preparation both during the season and off-season. Lott also was recognized by Power Magazine as the 2001 Powermag All-NFL Team Top Strength Coach.

Lott's programs stress Olympic movements, as well as strength and speed development, and he has also devised strict individual in-season programs to help the players increase their overall stamina and endurance. Lott is also responsible for working with injured players on secondary rehabilitation programs.

Lott originally joined the Jets in 1997 after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Houston for seven years (1991-96), where he supervised the strength and conditioning program for all 14 varsity sports with a primary focus on football, men's basketball, men's and women's track and field and the nationally ranked men's golf team. During his seven years at Houston, Lott designed and oversaw the construction of a state-of-the-art 17,000-square foot weight room (the largest in the country at the time of its completion).

Prior to his tenure at Houston, Lott served one year (1990) in the same capacity at his alma mater, the University of North Texas, overseeing all 11 varsity sports programs. Lott has a strong track background, having worked as the strength and conditioning coach of the Santa Monica Track Club and trained Olympic gold medalists Carl Lewis, Leroy Burrell and Mike Marsh. Lott also worked with the 1992 and 1996 Indonesian National Track teams, as well as with select members of the Japanese National Track team in preparation for the Olympics in 1992 and 1996. Overall, his athletes have garnered six world records and 12 Olympic medals.

Lott played for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1987 under head coach Chuck Noll and went to training camp with the New York Jets in 1988. He was a standout offensive lineman at North Texas, where he earned four varsity letters and was named All-Conference twice, and All-America his senior year. He was twice voted "Most Dedicated" and a team captain by his teammates, and graduated as the strongest man in school history.

Lott earned his Bachelor of Science degree in corporate fitness in 1988 with minors in biology and kinesiology and later earned his master's degree in physical education from Crescent City Christian College in 1990. He served as assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Texas in 1988. He also appeared in a minor role in the film Necessary Roughness, which was shot on the North Texas campus. Lott was born May 9, 1964 in Denton, Texas. He is married to his wife, Kim, and the couple have a son, Jasper Ryan (4) and a daughter, Kaitlyn Grace (2).

RANDY MELVIN

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 4TH

Randy Melvin is entering his second season as defensive line coach. Melvin joins the Browns with 22 years of coaching experience, including two seasons with the New England Patriots as defensive line coach (2000-01). In 2004, Melvin was defensive line coach at Rutgers and earlier in 2005 had accepted a position on Ron Zook's staff at the University of Illinois.

Melvin spent three seasons as defensive line coach at Rutgers (2002-04) and worked with Romeo Crennel as defensive line coach at New England during the Patriots 2001 Super Bowl championship season. Melvin also gained experience on the NFL level as a participant in the NFL's minority coaching fellowship program, first with the Denver Broncos in 1995, and also with the New York Jets from 1997-98.

Prior to joining the Patriots staff, Melvin was defensive ends coach at Purdue for three seasons (1997-99). While at Purdue, Melvin was instrumental in the development of several linemen who went on to play in the NFL.

A 1982 graduate of Eastern Illinois, Melvin began coaching on the collegiate level in 1988 at his alma mater as defensive line coach. Melvin spent seven seasons at Eastern Illinois before moving on to Wyoming for two seasons (1995-96). The Cowboys were impressive under Melvin's tutelage, recording a Western Athletic Conference best 33 sacks in 1995, and following it up with another league best 46 sacks in 1996.

Melvin began his coaching career in the high school ranks in 1982, first as assistant coach, and then as head coach, of Aurora West High School (1985-87). He then returned to Eastern Illinois for seven seasons (1988-94). Melvin was a starter on the defensive line for Eastern Illinois for three seasons, and received AP All-America recognition (Division II) in 1979 and 1980. He is a member of both the Eastern Illinois University (inducted in 1995) and Aurora West High School Halls of Fame (inducted in 1994).

Melvin was born in Aurora, Ill. He and his wife Karen are the proud parents of two children, Lance and Malia.

TERRY ROBISKIE

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

Terry Robiskie begins his sixth season as a coach with the Cleveland Browns, including his second stint as wide receivers coach and fifth season coaching this position. Robiskie joined the Browns in 2001 as wide receivers coach (2001-03), served as offensive coordinator in 2004 and eventually interim head coach (1-4 record) over the last five games of the 2004 season after head coach Butch Davis resigned.

The 2006 season will be his 25th in the NFL, and his coaching experience includes roles as a position coach, offensive coordinator and head coach. Robiskie will tutor 2005 number one draft choice, Braylon Edwards, who showed his playmaking ability last season with 32 receptions for 512 yards and three touchdowns.

Prior to joining the Browns in 2001, Robiskie spent the previous seven years with the Washington Redskins and concluded the 2000 season as the Redskins head coach for the final three games of the regular season, following the departure of Norv Turner. Robiskie's record as head coach was 1-2, including a 20-3 win over Arizona on Dec. 24.

Robiskie began the 2000 season as passing game coordinator in Washington, and helped the Redskins rank fifth in the NFC in total offense (337.3 ypg) and passing (228.0 ypg). He helped running back Stephen Davis total 1,318 yards and 11 touchdowns.

He entered the coaching profession with the Los Angeles Raiders in 1982 as the assistant running backs coach, where he tutored Marcus Allen to two Pro Bowls and two 1,000-yard seasons. Robiskie was the assistant special teams coach for the Raiders from 1985-87, and he tutored the Raiders tight ends in 1988.

Robiskie was the Raiders offensive coordinator from 1989-1993. In 1990, Oakland ranked ninth in the NFL with 126.8 yards rushing per game and QB Jay Schroeder ranked sixth in the NFL with a 90.8 QB rating. In 1992, the Raiders ranked 11th in the NFL with 112.1 yards rushing. In 1993, Oakland ranked fifth in the NFL in passing and 13th in total offense as Robiskie helped QB Jeff Hostetler pass for 3,242 yards and 14 TDs. Robiskie's 12 years with the Raiders included seven playoff stints, four division titles and a victory over the Redskins in Super Bowl XVIII.

Originally an eighth round selection by Oakland in the 1977 NFL Draft, Robiskie was a four-year letter winner and the 1976 SEC MVP as a senior at LSU. Robiskie spent five years in the NFL as a running back with the Raiders (1977-79) and the Miami Dolphins (1980-81), while playing for legendary coaches John Madden, Don Shula and Tom Flores.

Born Nov. 12, 1954, in New Orleans, Robiskie and his wife, Cynthia, have three sons: Brian, Andrew and Kyle. Brian will be a sophomore this season on the Ohio State University football team.

JERRY ROSBURG

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

YEAR IN NFL: 6TH

Jerry Rosburg is in his sixth season as the Browns special teams coordinator. Last season, Rosburg's special teams led the league in scoring as the Browns were the only team in the NFL to score a touchdown on special teams in three different ways—punt return, kickoff return and a blocked field goal attempt. The Browns were one of the best punt return units in the NFL, as PR Dennis Northcutt ranked fourth in the league with a 10.1 punt return average. Rosburg also worked with K Phil Dawson, who ranked second in the NFL in field goal accuracy with a 93% clip (27-of-29 attempts), en route to his third career 100 point season. Dawson currently is the second most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history with an 83.9% accuracy rate.

The Browns 2005 special teams were rated as the sixth best in the NFL by Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News, whose annual comprehensive poll ranks teams from 1-32 based on their results in 21 categories. Browns special teams also ranked sixth in the same comprehensive poll in 2004. In 2002, the club ranked fourth in the overall rankings after blocking a total of five kicks to lead the NFL. Over the past four seasons, Rosburg's units rank tied for first in the NFL in cumulative rankings.

Since 2001, the Browns have ranked third in the NFL in opponent kickoff return average (20.6) and fourth in the league in punt return average (10.3) under the direction of Rosburg.

Rosburg's background includes 20 years as a college coach. Prior to joining the Browns, he served as cornerbacks/special teams coach at the University of Notre Dame for two seasons (1999-2000). He helped the 2000 Fighting Irish to a Bowl Championship Series berth and an appearance in the Fiesta Bowl.

He spent two seasons as secondary coach at Boston College (1997-98), one season as secondary coach at the University of Minnesota (1996) and served as an assistant coach for four seasons at the University of Cincinnati (1992-95). He coached the secondary in 1995, linebackers from 1992-94 and helped the Bearcats to an 8-3 record in 1993. Rosburg coached linebackers and special teams at Western Michigan University from 1987-91. The Broncos posted a nine-win season in 1988 and earned a California Bowl appearance.

Rosburg began his college coaching career at Northern Michigan University, as a two-year graduate assistant in 1981-82 and helped the school earn Division II playoff appearances each season. He was appointed to a full-time assistant position at NMU the following season and coached the Wildcats' linebackers for three years (1983-85), before being elevated to defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 1986.

JERRY ROSBURG CONTINUED...

Rosburg was an assistant coach at Fargo (N.D.) Shanley High School (1979-80) prior to coaching on the collegiate level. He was an All-American linebacker at North Dakota State, where he received his bachelor's degree in 1978. Rosburg received his master's degree from Northern Michigan in 1983. A native of Fairmont, Minnesota, Rosburg was born Nov. 24, 1955. He and his wife, Sherry, have two daughters, Megan and Margaret, and one son, Jerad.

RIP SCHERER

QUARTERBACKS COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 2ND

Rip Scherer is entering his second season as quarterbacks coach. Scherer joined the Browns in 2005 with over 30 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level. Scherer has the responsibility tutoring young quarterbacks Charlie Frye, Derek Anderson and Ken Dorsey.

Prior to joining the Browns, Scherer spent two seasons (2003-04) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Southern Mississippi after serving as co-offensive coordinator at University of Kansas in 2001.

Scherer was the head coach at James Madison University from 1991-94, and during that time the team set or tied over 140 school records. While Scherer served as the head coach at University of Memphis (1995-00), the club registered the first and only victory over the University of Tennessee in school history.

Scherer was also the offensive coordinator at University of Arizona (1989-90), University of Alabama (1987) and Georgia Tech (1981, 1986). He also served as assistant athletic director at Georgia Tech in 1985 and director of football operations at Arizona in 1988.

Scherer started his coaching career as a graduate assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State University in 1974 and went on to coach quarterbacks at North Carolina State University (1976), running backs at the University of Hawaii (1977-78) and quarterbacks at University of Virginia (1979).

Scherer was a three-year letterman at College of William and Mary from 1970-74, where he played quarterback. Born August 3, 1952, Scherer and his wife, Michele, have three children: Scott, Melanie and Ryan.

BOB TROTT

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 7TH

Bob Trott is entering his second season with the Browns as defensive assistant coach and brings nearly 30 years of coaching experience to the organization. Trott has previous NFL experience with the N.Y. Giants (1991-92) and New England Patriots (1993-95) and prior to joining the Browns spent two years at the University of Louisiana at Monroe (2003-04) as their defensive coordinator.

Beyond his NFL coaching experience, Trott's experience includes serving on the coaching staffs of 11 college bowl teams and has been a defensive coordinator at five NCAA Division I-A universities, including Arkansas and Clemson. Trott has served as a coach or player under such renowned head coaches as Bill Parcells, Al Groh, Ken Hatfield, Fred Goldsmith, and Bill Dooley.

Trott played at North Carolina under coach Bill Dooley and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Chapel Hill from 1976-77. Trott entered full-time coaching at the Air Force Academy in 1978, handling the defensive ends first under Parcells (1978) and Ken Hatfield (1979-83) before he assumed defensive back coaching duties in 1981.

In 1984, Trott moved to the University of Arkansas and was defensive backfield coach for the Razorbacks from 1984-88 before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 1989. Trott helped Arkansas win Southwest Conference championships in 1988 and 1989 and play in six bowl games.

Trott went to Clemson in 1990, serving as the Tigers' defensive coordinator, as well as handling the defensive backs. The Tigers led the NCAA in total defense in 1990.

In 1991, Trott moved up to the NFL, joining Ray Handley's staff with the New York Giants as a defensive assistant. Two years later he rejoined Parcells, going to New England as defensive backfield coach for the Patriots, serving through the 1995 campaign.

Trott became a defensive coordinator again in 1996, also handling the defensive backs, when he joined the Duke staff. He moved to Baylor as defensive coordinator in 2002 before heading to Louisiana-Monroe the following season.

Trott was born in Concord, N.C., on March 19, 1954, and grew up in nearby Kannapolis where he attended A.L. Brown High. He played safety at North Carolina, earning three letters under Dooley and serving as a senior captain in his final season. He also excelled in the classroom, making the all-Atlantic Coast Conference Academic team in 1975. He received a bachelor's degree in business from UNC in 1976 and later, in 1982, was awarded a master's degree in education.

Trott and his wife Barbara have three children, Amanda, Nathan and Brittany.

MEL TUCKER

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

YEAR IN NFL: 2ND

Mel Tucker is entering his second season as defensive backs coach. Last year, Tucker worked with the secondary unit as the Browns ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense (179.2 ypg).

Tucker joined the Browns after spending the previous four seasons (2001-04) on Jim Tressel's staff at Ohio State. Tucker coached defensive backs and was co-defensive coordinator during the 2004 season as he played an integral role in game preparation and strategy.

Tucker grew up in Cleveland and played college football at the University of Wisconsin. Prior to joining the staff at Ohio State, he spent one year (1999) at the University of Miami (Ohio) and one season at LSU (2000), where he coached the defensive backs at both schools.

In his four years at Ohio State, Tucker developed into an outstanding teacher and motivator and demonstrated the ability to get the most out of his players. He was regarded as one of the up-and-coming young coaches in college football.

Two of Tucker's Ohio State players—strong safeties Michael Doss and Will Allen—won first team All-America honors, while cornerback Chris Gamble was a second team All-American pick.

Tucker prepped at Cleveland Heights High School and was a two-time member of the Cleveland Plain Dealer's All-Scholastic team. He won All-Ohio honors in football as a senior and also enjoyed an outstanding basketball career. At Wisconsin, Tucker earned four letters as a defensive back. He graduated in the spring of 1995 with his degree in agricultural business management.

He began his coaching career in 1997 as a graduate assistant under Nick Saban at Michigan State University. After two years in that capacity, he became defensive backfield coach at Miami (Ohio). He spent one year with the RedHawks, leaving after the 1999 season to re-join Saban who had moved on to LSU.

Tucker was born Jan. 4, 1972 in Cleveland. Mel and his wife Jo-Ellyn, an attorney, were married in June of 1999. They have two sons, Joseph (2/18/02) and Christian (2/18/04).

JEFF UHLENHAKE

OFFENSIVE LINE ASSISTANT COACH

YEAR W/ BROWNS: 2NDYEAR IN NFL: 2ND

Jeff Uhlenhake is in his second season as offensive line assistant coach with the Browns. In 2005, Uhlenhake worked with offensive line coach, Jeff Davidson, as the offensive line was overhauled with three new starters.

Prior to joining the Browns, Uhlenhake served as the offensive line coach at the University of Cincinnati in 2004 as the Bearcats allowed just 14 sacks all season and averaged 183.4 yards rushing and 222.2 yards passing, and went on to beat Marshall in the Fort Worth Bowl.

Uhlenhake entered the coaching profession following a 10-year career in the NFL, where he started 112 games at center. A fifth-round draft choice by the Miami Dolphins in 1989, he became the first Dolphins rookie to start at center and was a member of the NFL all-rookie team that season. After five seasons at Miami (1989-1993), Uhlenhake spent two years with the New Orleans Saints (1994-96) and three with the Washington Redskins (1996-99).

Uhlenhake launched his coaching career in 2000 as offensive line coach at Centreville High School (Manassas, Va.). One year later he became head football coach and athletics director at Lehman Catholic High School (Sidney, Ohio), where he guided the school to the state Division V semifinals in 2001, earning Southwest Ohio Coach of the Year honors.

Uhlenhake joined the Ohio State staff in 2003 as quality control coach. His efforts helped the Buckeyes to a fourth place finish in both of the national polls and the Fiesta Bowl title.

A native of Newark, Ohio, Uhlenhake earned All-America honors and was the team captain as a senior at Ohio State. He earned his bachelor's degree from Ohio State in 1990. Uhlenhake is married to his wife, Angie, and the couple are expecting their first child this fall.

BILL REES

DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Bill Rees is in his second season as the Browns director of player personnel. Rees, who has an extensive background in scouting and personnel, oversees the club's personnel department and is involved in all areas of evaluating players for unrestricted free agency and the NFL Draft.

Rees spent the previous four years with the San Francisco 49ers, the most recent as director of player personnel for the 2004 season. Rees joined the 49ers after four seasons as the director of college scouting with the Chicago Bears. With Chicago, Rees oversaw a staff of six scouts and helped produce successful drafts that generated 14 starters over three seasons.

Prior to joining the Bears, Rees served as a regional scout for the Kansas City Chiefs. He was primarily responsible for scouting the college talent in the Western region.

The majority of Rees' experience came during his 15 years spent with UCLA (1979-93). Rees served as both an assistant coach and as recruiting coordinator for the Bruins, earning a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters. While at UCLA, Rees signed 90 prep All-Americans and helped the Bruins earn 12 bowl appearances and win five Pac-10 Championships.

Rees began his football career as a graduate assistant with Northwestern for three seasons, coaching defensive backs for two seasons (1976-77) and running backs for one season (1978). He played quarterback for three years at Ohio Wesleyan and graduated with a degree in history. He also earned his master's degree in education from Northwestern in 1978.

Rees was born April 2, 1954, and he and his wife, Susan, have three children, Danny, who will be a freshman at UCLA, Meghan and Tommy.

TRIP MacCRACKEN

DIRECTOR, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Trip MacCracken is in his eighth season with the Cleveland Browns. He works with player contract negotiations and salary cap management and helps coordinate the Browns' compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement.

MacCracken attended Hamilton College in Clinton, New York, where he played football for two seasons and baseball for one season before taking part in the school's Semester in Washington program during the fall of 1994. While in Washington, he interned at the White House and assisted the Redskins on game days. MacCracken then worked several summer internships with the Redskins, which led to an internship during the summer of 1998 at NFL Management Council.

A lifelong Browns fan, MacCracken graduated from Hawken School in 1992, where he captained the football and baseball teams. MacCracken graduated Cum Laude from Hamilton College in 1996 and graduated from Duke University School of Law in 1999. He is a member of the Ohio State Bar Association.

MacCracken, 32, is single and lives in Hudson, Ohio.

T.J. McCREIGHT

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

T.J. McCreight is in his second season as the Browns assistant director of player personnel. McCreight's duties with the team include assisting in pro scouting, advance scouting of upcoming opponents, unrestricted free agency, NFL Europe and free agents, and assisting the college scouting staff in preparation for the NFL Draft.

McCreight spent the previous eight seasons (1997-2004) in the Baltimore Ravens personnel department, including his last two seasons with the Ravens' as the club's national scout. McCreight spent three seasons with Baltimore as the East area scout and was then assigned expanded coverage to scout players throughout the United States.

McCreight gained his football experience in the college ranks both as a player and a coach. He was a tight end at Liberty University (Lynchburg, Va.), where he played under former Browns head coach Sam Rutigliano. McCreight graduated in 1992 with a degree in marketing.

McCreight's college coaching resume includes defensive line coach at Delaware State University from 1994-97 and receivers coach at Oberlin College in 1993. He and his wife, Linda, live with their son Matthew, 5, and daughter, Maggie, 3, in Bainbridge, Ohio.

STEVE SABO

COORDINATOR, PRO PERSONNEL

As coordinator, pro personnel, Steve Sabo is responsible for scouting 12 NFL teams, and assists with advance scouting of upcoming opponents. He also plays a role with the acquisition of unrestricted free agents throughout the year and preparation for the NFL Draft.

Sabo joined the Browns in 1998 after working with the New Orleans Saints from 1994-98. He worked as an administrative assistant with the Saints from 1994-96 and as a pro scout from 1996-98. Prior to joining the Saints, Sabo worked as a research assistant with NFL Films in 1993-94.

Sabo, 35, was born in Willingboro, N.J., and graduated from Kutztown University in 1993. He is married to the former Ursula Anderson of Knoxville, Tenn. They have a daughter, Anderson, and reside in Medina, Ohio.

PAUL WARFIELD

COLLEGE SCOUT/ SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Paul Warfield begins his third season with the Browns as a scouting and career planning consultant. Warfield previously worked for the Browns as Director of Player Relations from 1985-87. His main responsibilities with the club will include college scouting, talent evaluation and special projects.

Warfield starred for the Browns from 1964-69 and again from 1976-77 and also spent five seasons (1970-74) with the Miami Dolphins.

He led the Browns in receiving as a rookie, catching 52 passes for 920 yards and nine touchdowns and helped Cleveland win the 1964 NFL Championship (27-0 vs. Baltimore on Dec. 27).

Warfield played college football at Ohio State and was enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1983. Over his 13-year NFL career, he caught 427 passes for 8,565 yards and 85 touchdowns with a sensational 20.1-yard per catch average. Warfield was named All-NFL five times and was selected to eight Pro Bowls.

JIM JAUCH

COLLEGE AREA SCOUT

Jim Jauch is in his third season as a college scout for the Browns and has 14 years of NFL scouting experience. Jauch worked from 1992 to 2003 as a college scout for the San Diego Chargers, where he was responsible for the most comprehensive area held by a college scout for the franchise. Since 2002, he has covered nine states in the Midwest including Ohio and also crosschecked the Southeast, which included eight additional states.

Jauch played four seasons in the Canadian Football League (CFL) for the Calgary Stampeders (1989), Edmonton Eskimos (1990) and Hamilton Tigercats (1991-92).

He earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, where he lettered four times as a defensive back. His father, Ray, was a head coach for the Washington Federals (USFL) and also served as a head coach for 14 seasons in the CFL for the Edmonton Eskimos and Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Jauch was born on June 25, 1965 in Iowa City, Iowa. He and his wife, Shaunea, reside in Cincinnati.

JAKE HALLUM

SENIOR SCOUT

Jake Hallum is in his second season with the Browns as a senior college scout and has been evaluating college talent for more than three decades. Prior to joining the Browns, Hallum served five seasons as a college scout with the New England Patriots, primarily in the Midwest and Southeast.

Hallum provided the Philadelphia Eagles with five seasons (1995-99) as a college scout. His experience at the college level began as the head coach at Morehead State in 1968. After four seasons (1968-71), Hallum moved to the University of Maryland, where he coached the offensive line from 1972 to 1981. In 1982, he began an eight-year assignment as an assistant at Kentucky.

In 1990, he accepted the position as offensive line and tight ends coach at Arizona State. Following the 1991 season, he left the coaching ranks, completing a 24-year coaching career. In 1992, he began his scouting career as a regional scout for National Football Scouting, and scouted Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Mississippi. Hallum held the position with National Scouting for two seasons prior to joining the Eagles, and with Philadelphia, he scouted all areas of the United States.

Hallum was born Nov. 2, 1938 in Liberty, S.C. He played linebacker and guard at Newberry College (1957-60) and later earned his master's degree from Murray State in 1965. He coached high school football at his alma mater, Pickens (S.C.) High (1960-62), later making stops at Hopkinsville (Ky.) High (1962-66) and Paul Blazer High in Ashland, Ky. (1966-67), winning the state AAA championship at Hopkinsville High and Paul Blazer High School.

Jake and his wife, Mable, have two sons, Todd and Bart. They reside in Lexington, Ky.

KEVIN KELLY

COLLEGE AREA SCOUT

Kevin Kelly is in his sixth year as a college area scout for the Browns. He arrived in Cleveland following five years (1996-2000) as head coach and offensive coordinator for St. Viator High School in Arlington Heights, Ill.

Kelly previously coached at Case Western Reserve University (1995) as defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach, John Carroll University (1994) as linebackers coach and at Lake Forest College (1993) as defensive line coach. He began his coaching career with a three-year stint at Indiana University (1989-92) as a defensive graduate assistant.

He holds a master's degree in sports marketing and management and a bachelor's degree in economics from Indiana University. Kelly was a walk-on player at Indiana University and following a stint at the 1986 All-American Bowl, he captained the Hoosiers to the 1987 Peach Bowl. Kelly also played at the University of Miami (Fla.) and was a member of the Hurricanes' 1983 National Championship team.

Kelly and his wife, Allison, have two sons, Ryan, 11, and Payton, 6, and one daughter, Abigail, 3, and reside in Indianapolis, Ind.

JAMES KIRKLAND

COLLEGE AREA SCOUT

James Kirkland is in his third season with the Browns as a scout. Before coming to Cleveland, he spent the previous three months as a recruiting intern at Duke, which came following a season-long tenure with the Atlanta Falcons. As a Falcons' volunteer scouting intern, he assisted with scouting of the defensive line and defensive backs.

Kirkland earned a bachelor's degree in philosophy from Duke and was a four-year letterman as a defensive end on the Blue Devil football squad, where he recorded 13 career sacks. He went on to earn a master's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing and accounting from Georgia Tech.

RICH LONG

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT SCOUT

Rich Long is beginning his fifth season with the Browns and currently serves the role of Research and Development Scout. Long manages information from the scouting staff on a year-round basis in preparation for the NFL Draft, serves as a liaison between the scouting and personnel staff, evaluates players and works on special projects at the direction of Phil Savage.

Prior to joining the Browns, Long was a partner for two years (2001-2002) with the law firm Hoffman Long LLP in Harrisburg, Pa., and also served four years (1997-2000) as a deputy district attorney in Harrisburg. Long graduated with his law degree from the University of Miami (Fla.) in 1996, and his undergraduate degree in political science from Gettysburg College (Pa.) in 1989. Long played four years of football at Gettysburg as a kicker and punter. In 1987, he was selected first-team All-Centennial Conference and first-team All-Eastern College Athletic Conference. In 1993, he served as an assistant coach at Dickinson College (Pa.).

Long is a Major in the United States Army Reserve and just returned from a nine-month tour of duty in Baghdad, Iraq, where he served with the Multi-National Security Transition Command-Iraq. Long is originally from Harrisburg, Pa. and currently lives in Strongsville, Ohio.

ROBERT MORRIS

COLLEGE AREA SCOUT

Robert Morris is in his fifth year as a college area scout for the Browns after serving as a collegiate assistant coach at the Division I-A level for 21 years.

Morris entered coaching as a secondary coach at Northern Illinois University from 1980-83, after working the previous two years as a graduate assistant at the University of Colorado. He then served as secondary coach for 10 seasons (1984-93) at Indiana University and helped the Hoosiers reach six bowl games. He was defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Purdue University from 1994-95 and served as the Boilermakers special teams coordinator in 1996. Morris was passing game coordinator/secondary coach at the University of Akron from 1998-2000 and was the Zips defensive coordinator/secondary coach in 2001.

Morris received a master's degree in sports psychology and a bachelor's degree in secondary education from the University of Colorado. He was a two-year letter winner as a defensive back and punt returner for the Buffaloes and helped Colorado win the 1976 Big-8 Championship.

A graduate of DePauw University (Ind.), Roberts played four years at DePauw as an offensive guard (1991-94) and graduated in 1995 with a degree in exercise science. Following graduation, Roberts continued his education and received his master's degree from Indiana State in 1997, while coaching football at DePauw (1995-97). Roberts was running back coach in 1995 and served as offensive line coach for two seasons (1996-97).

In 1998, Roberts briefly served as head strength coach and offensive line coach for Division III Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., before accepting a position with the Chicago Bears.

Roberts was born Oct. 4, 1972, in Mishawaka, Ind. Roberts and his wife, Allison, who is a prosecutor, live in High Bridge, N.J., and have a newborn daughter, Sophia.

BOB WELTON COLLEGE AREA SCOUT

Bob Welton is in his third season as a college scout for the Browns. Prior to joining the Browns, he served seven years as a head high school football coach. Welton spent the 2003 season with Coloma High School in Coloma, Mich., where he guided the team to its first undefeated season and first playoff victory in school history. For his efforts, he was named Lakeland Conference and MHSFCA Region 5 Coach-of-the-Year.

He spent the previous six seasons as head coach at South Haven High in South Haven, Mich., where he helped revive the program and also raised more than $440,000 to rebuild the school's football stadium. Welton also served as head track coach at South Haven from 2001 until his departure. He taught physical education at the school from 1997 until 2003, when he began teaching special education.

Welton also has coached baseball and served as an assistant varsity football coach at Adrian High School (Mich.) from 1990-96.

Welton was born in Toledo, Ohio and earned a bachelor's degree in physical education/health from Adrian (Mich.) College, where he played quarterback and was part of two MIAA championship teams. Welton did his post graduate work at both Eastern Michigan and Grand Valley State University. Welton and his wife, Laura, were married in 2005 and reside in South Haven, Mich.

JIM BROWN

EXECUTIVE ADVISOR

Cleveland Browns Hall-of-Fame running back Jim Brown has returned to the Browns organization in a role of assisting to build relationships with Browns players and to further enhance the NFL's wide range of sponsored programs through the Browns player programs department.

Brown was Cleveland's number one draft choice in 1957 out of Syracuse and went on to fulfill his storied NFL career which included leading the NFL in rushing in eight of his nine seasons, appeared in nine straight Pro Bowls, and was twice named the NFL's MVP (1958 & 1965). Brown holds the Browns' record for most combined net yards (15,459), career rushing yards (12,312), most points in one season (126), career TDs (126), rushing TDs (106), most consecutive games scoring a TD (10) and most 1,000 yard seasons (7).

Brown's number 32 was retired by the Browns and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971. Brown is very active with his Amer-I-Can Program, which teaches self-help principles to ex-convicts and gang members. Brown was born on Feb. 17, 1936 in St. Simons, Ga.

JERRY BUTLER

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Jerry Butler is in his eighth year with the Browns and sixth year as the team's director, player development. Butler coached the Browns wide receivers in 1999 and 2000. He arrived in Cleveland following six years in the Buffalo Bills front office and currently serves on the NFL's Player Development Executive Steering Committee.

Butler coordinates a comprehensive set of player development programs designed exclusively to assist players with off-field personal development and serve as a comprehensive resource center. Programs provide assistance in life skills training, continuing education, financial education, career internships and family assistance. Butler also received the 2003-2004 Winston-Shell Award for innovation and Commitment to Player Development.

Butler was one of the most productive receivers in the NFL during his nine-year (1979-87) playing career. When Butler retired from the Bills following the 1987 season, he held several of the club's all-time receiving marks, including two which still stand—most receiving yards in a game (255 vs. N.Y. Jets, on Sept. 23, 1979) and most touchdowns in a game (4 vs. N.Y. Jets, on Sept. 23, 1979). Butler was Buffalo's first-round draft choice in 1979, and was named AFC Offensive Rookie-of-the-Year in 1979 and earned a Pro Bowl selection in 1980.

A graduate of Clemson University, Butler was an All-America choice as a senior and was inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame in 1986. Butler was named to the Clemson Ring of Honor—the highest honor a Clemson athlete can receive, and in 1997 was inducted into the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame.

During his playing career, Butler also established himself as a community leader. He was the Bills' "Man-of-the-Year" in 1981 and 1982 for his outstanding community service and was honored in 1983 by the Buffalo and Erie County YMCA with the Jackie Robinson Award. Butler has continued his involvement in the community following his playing career. He holds the Jerry Butler Athletes in Action annual summer football camp at Buffalo State College in Buffalo, N.Y.

A native of Ware Shoals, S.C., Butler was born on Oct. 12, 1957. He and his wife, Paula, have two children, Jerry, 19, and Chrissy, 17. The family resides in Shaker Heights, Ohio.

Jim Ray Smith—2005 inductee to the Cleveland Browns Legends.

HOW THE BROWNS WERE NAMED

Just how did the Cleveland Browns get their name?

One myth is that the team was named after the popular boxing champion, Joe Louis, "The Brown Bomber". The truth, according to several published reports, is this:

When Owner Arthur McBride brought an AAFC team to Cleveland in 1945, he held a newspaper contest to name the team and offered a $1,000 war bond to the winner. Most of the entries submitted wanted the name Browns, because the extremely popular Paul Brown was the team's head coach.

Coach Brown thought it wouldn't be proper to name the team after him, and the entry "Panthers" was selected. A few weeks later, a man approached McBride and said he owned a semi-pro team in the 1920s called the Cleveland Panthers and he still owned the rights to the name.

McBride could have bought the man off, but Brown vetoed the idea. The coach didn't want the new team to be associated with a losing franchise. Instead of holding a new contest, Brown reluctantly agreed to name the team Browns. But, in sticking with his original ideals, Brown suggested publicly that since Louis was "The Brown Bomber", that was how the team got its name. Not a single entry in the contest listed Louis or his nickname as a reason for choosing "Browns".

The Cleveland Browns were originated by Owner Arthur (Mickey) McBride as a member of the All-America Football Conference. Paul Brown was named coach and general manager, and the first player he signed was then-tailback Otto Graham, who was converted to quarterback with the Browns. The Browns won the Western Division title with a 42-17 victory over the Buffalo Bisons and then defeated the New York Yankees, 14-9, in the championship game.

1947-49

The Browns continued their domination of the AAFC, winning three more championships.

1950

Following the merger of the AAFC and the NFL, the Browns tied the New York Giants with 10-2 records for a share of the Eastern Division title. The Browns defeated the New York Giants, 8-3, in a playoff game and then stopped the Los Angeles Rams, 30-28, for the championship.

1951-53

The Browns won three consecutive Eastern titles, but lost each time in the league's title match, once to the Los Angeles Rams and twice to the Detroit Lions. In 1953, McBride sold the club to an organization headed by David Jones.

1954-55

Led by quarterback Otto Graham, the Browns won back-to-back NFL championships, defeating the Detroit Lions and Los Angeles Rams.

1956

At 5-7, the Browns suffered their first losing season.

1957

Jim Brown was selected in the first round by the Browns and earned rookie-of-the-year honors while helping Cleveland to the Eastern Division title.

1961

Art Modell purchased the Browns for the then unheard sum of $4 million.

1963

Paul Brown was released from his duties after 17 seasons as head coach of the franchise. Blanton Collier, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach.

1964

The Browns won the Eastern Conference title with a 52-20 victory over the New York Giants and defeated the Baltimore Colts, 27-0, in the NFL Championship Game.

1965

In his last season, Jim Brown won NFL MVP honors and led Cleveland to the NFL Championship Game, where the Browns were defeated by the Green Bay Packers.

1966

An eighth round pick in 1964, Leroy Kelly became the club's dominant threat, rushing for 1,141 yards, but the Browns finished second in the Eastern Conference to the Dallas Cowboys.

1968

With newly acquired quarterback Bill Nelsen (from the Pittsburgh Steelers), the Browns won the Century Division title and beat the Dallas Cowboys in the playoffs, but lost to the Baltimore Colts in the NFL Championship Game.

1969

The Browns won the Century Division title for the third straight year, but lost to the Minnesota Vikings in the NFL Championship Game.

1970

The Browns became members of the AFC Central Division and finished second. The Browns beat the New York Jets, 31-21, on Monday Night Football's first-ever telecast.

1971

Nick Skorich, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach. The club won its first AFC Central crown.

1972

The Browns lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion

Miami Dolphins in the playoffs, 20-14, as the Dolphins completed an undefeated season.

1975-77

Forrest Gregg became head coach in 1975, Greg Pruitt had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons and Dick Modzelewski coached the final game of 1977.

1978

Sam Rutigliano became the first non-Browns' assistant to be named head coach of the Browns. Cleveland won its first three contests en route to an 8-8 finish.

1979

Losses in the final two games dropped the Browns' record to 9-7 and prevented the team from entering the playoffs. Mike Pruitt had the first of three straight 1,000-yard seasons.

1980

The Browns won the AFC Central Division title with an 11-5 record, but lost to eventual Super Bowl Champion Oakland Raiders in the playoffs. Quarterback Brian Sipe was consensus MVP of the NFL.

1982

In a strike-shortened season, the Browns finished eighth in the AFC (4-5) and gained a playoff spot for the second time in three years. Cleveland lost to the Los Angeles Raiders in the Super Bowl Tournament.

1983

The Browns tied for a Wild Card playoff spot with a 9-7 record, but lost the NFL tie-breaking procedure to the Denver Broncos and Seattle Seahawks.

1984

The Browns replaced Head Coach Sam Rutigliano with Defensive Coordinator Marty Schottenheimer after a 1-7 midseason record and finished the season at 5-11. Tight end Ozzie Newsome caught 89 passes for the second straight year.

1985

The Browns captured their third AFC Central Division title, but lost to the Miami Dolphins in the playoffs, 24-21, at Miami. Rookie Kevin Mack (1,104) and Earnest Byner (1,002) each gained 1,000 yards rushing. It marked the third time in the 66-year history of the NFL that teammates both rushed for over 1,000 yards in the same season.

1986

The Browns posted a team-record 12 wins en route to their second consecutive AFC Central Division crown. In a double-overtime playoff thriller before a packed Cleveland Municipal Stadium crowd, the Browns beat the New York Jets, 23-20, to advance to the AFC Championship game. The Browns lost to the Denver Broncos, also in overtime, 23-20.

1987

The Browns captured their third straight AFC Central Division crown, as they finished the season 10-5. The third week of the NFL season was cancelled due to a 24-day players' strike, during which three "replacement" games were played (the Browns posted a 2-1 record). The Browns defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 38-21, at Cleveland Municipal Stadium in the AFC playoffs, then dropped their second straight AFC Championship to the Denver Broncos despite a spectacular come-from-behind bid that saw the Browns score 30 second-half points, only to fall, 38-33, at Mile High Stadium. Bernie Kosar won the AFC passing title with a 95.4 QB rating, and an NFL-high eight Browns made the Pro Bowl.

Cleveland finished 10-6 and earned a Wild Card berth by defeating the Houston Oilers, 28-23, in the season finale by overcoming a 16-point third-quarter deficit. Houston defeated the Browns, 24-23, in the Wild Card Game played on Christmas Eve. Four Cleveland quarterbacks suffered injuries during the course of the season. Marty Schottenheimer resigned on Dec. 27.

1989

Bud Carson was announced as the Browns' seventh full-time head coach on Jan. 27. The Browns won their fourth division title in five years with a 9-6-1 record, and advanced to the playoffs for an AFC-high fifth-straight season. The Browns advanced to their third title game in four years by defeating the Buffalo Bills, 34-30, but lost to the Denver Broncos, 37-21, at Mile High Stadium in the AFC Championship Game.

1990

The Browns suffered through a 3-13 season. Jim Shofner replaced Bud Carson as interim head coach on Nov. 5.

1991-93

Bill Belichick was named the eighth full-time head coach on Feb. 5, 1991. The Browns moved into a new training and administrative complex located in Berea, Ohio, in August 1991 and began holding training camp there in July 1992. The Browns finished 6-10, 7-9 and 7-9, respectively. Unrestricted free agency began in 1993. The Browns signed five players in the first year of this system, including quarterback Vinny Testaverde of Tampa Bay.

1994

The Browns earned a playoff berth for the first time in the '90s, finishing 11-5 and defeating the New England Patriots, 20-13, in the Wild Card Game at soldout Cleveland Municipal Stadium. The Browns faced the Pittsburgh Steelers for the first time ever in the playoffs, and lost, 29-9, at Three Rivers Stadium. The Cleveland defense set a team record by allowing just 204 points, and six players went to the Pro Bowl.

1995

The Browns concluded the season with a 5-11 record. On November 6, Owner Art Modell announced he was relocating the team to Baltimore, Md. The final game played at Cleveland Municipal Stadium was on Dec. 17 against the Cincinnati Bengals. The Browns defeated the Bengals, 26-10. The victory marked an all-time NFL record of 202-117-5 (.631) while playing at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

1996

The City of Cleveland and the NFL secured an unprecedented deal to return the Cleveland Browns to the playing field in 1999. The deal stipulated that the name, colors and heritage of the Browns would remain in Cleveland.

1998

The NFL awarded the Cleveland Browns to Alfred Lerner on Sept. 8. The NFL formally transferred ownership of the Cleveland Browns to Lerner and Carmen A. Policy on Oct. 23. Dwight Clark was named vice president, director of football operations on Nov. 30.

1999

Chris Palmer was named the ninth full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history Jan. 21. The Browns were awarded the rights to the first pick in the 1999 NFL Draft and used the pick to select Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch. The first game at new Cleveland Browns Stadium was played on Aug. 21 against the Minnesota Vikings, with the Vikings prevailing, 24-17 in a preseason contest. In the first regular-season game in the Browns' 1999 commemorative season and the first regular-season game at Cleveland Browns Stadium, the Browns lost to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 43-0. The Browns recorded their first victory of the '99 season on Oct. 31 with a last-second Hail Mary pass from Couch to Kevin Johnson.

2000

The Browns selected Penn State defensive end Courtney Brown with the first pick in the 2000 NFL Draft. The Browns notched their first regular-season victory at Cleveland Browns Stadium on Sept. 17 with a 23-20 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

2001

The Browns fired Head Coach Chris Palmer on Jan. 11.

The Browns hired Butch Davis as the franchise's 10th full-time head coach on Jan. 30.

2002

Dwight Clark resigned his post as the team's executive vice president, director of football operations on May 13. Owner Alfred Lerner passed away on Oct. 23. The Browns finished the season by winning seven of their last 10 contests to earn the club's first postseason berth since 1994 with a 9-7 record. The Browns were defeated in the AFC Wild Card Game at Pittsburgh, 36-33.

2003

The Browns finished with a 5-11 record as the season was highlighted by a 33-13 win at Pittsburgh on Oct. 5 in front of a nationally televised audience on ESPN Sunday Night Football.

2004

John Collins assumed the role of President & CEO on May 1. Rookie TE Kellen Winslow was lost for the season with an ankle injury after week two and the Browns went on to finish with a 4-12 record. Head coach Butch Davis resigned after a 3-8 start and interim head coach Terry Robiskie coached the team over the final five weeks, including a 22-14 season-ending victory at Houston.

2005

Phil Savage was named Senior Vice President & General Manager on Jan. 7 and Romeo Crennel was named head coach on Feb. 8.

2006

President and CEO, John Collins, announced his resignation on Jan. 3.

CLEVELAND BROWNS IN THE HALL OF FAME

The rich tradition of the Cleveland Browns boasts 15 members in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, which is tied with Washington for the fifth-highest total league-wide. Only the Chicago Bears, Green Bay Packers, New York Giants and Pittsburgh Steelers claim more Hall of Famers.

DEC. 17, 1950 NFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CLEVELAND 8, NEW YORK GIANTS 3—Lou Groza's 28-yard field goal with 58 seconds left gave the Browns the victory after they had lost to the Giants in both regular-season meetings. The offenses were thwarted by 10-degree weather and a numbing wind. The Giants had a chance for a touchdown, but after a bizarre series of plays inside the Browns' 10, they had to accept a tying field goal. Then Otto Graham used the quarterback draw to move Cleveland down the field to Groza's winning kick. Moments later, the Browns added a safety. Graham ran for 70 yards on 8 carries.

DEC. 24, 1950 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

CLEVELAND 30, LOS ANGELES 28—Lou Groza kicked a 16-yard field goal with 28 seconds remaining to give the Browns the NFL title in their inaugural season. Cleveland, which had appeared in the AAFC championship game all four years of that league's existence, joined the NFL in 1950. The Browns trailed 28-20 in the fourth quarter when Otto Graham led them on a 65-yard drive, capped by his 14-yard scoring pass to Rex Bumgardner with 4:35 left. After a Rams' punt, the Browns took over at their 32 with two minutes left. Graham led a 57-yard drive to set up Groza's winning kick. Graham passed for 298 yards and 4 touchdowns, including 11 completions for 128 yards and 2 scores to Dante Lavelli. Bob Waterfield of the Rams passed for 312 yards. The Rams' Tom Fears had 9 catches for 136 yards.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

LOS ANGELES 24, CLEVELAND 17—Norm Van Brocklin's 73-yard scoring pass to Tom Fears lifted the Rams to their second NFL title. The Rams took a 14-10 lead in the third quarter on Dan Towler's 1-yard run, which was set up by Andy Robustelli's fumble return to the Browns' 2. A field goal made it 17-10, but the Browns tied the game midway through the fourth quarter on Ken Carpenter's 5-yard touchdown run. After the ensuing kickoff, Van Brocklin, facing a third and 3 from his 27, found Fears near midfield. Fears caught the pass between two Browns defenders, who collided, which left Fears with an easy gallop to the end zone.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DETROIT 17, CLEVELAND 7—Despite being outgained 384-258, the Lions stopped Cleveland five times inside their 25-yard line to pull out the victory. A shanked punt by the Browns set up the game's first score, a 2-yard run by Detroit quarterback Bobby Layne. Doak Walker made it 14-0 in the third quarter when he raced 67 yards for a touchdown. The Browns answered with a 67-yard touchdown drive to make it 14-7 entering the fourth quarter. In the final period, Cleveland was stopped twice inside the Lions' 10, while Pat Harder clinched the victory for Detroit with a 36-yard field goal.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DETROIT 17, CLEVELAND 16—The Lions drove 80 yards in the final minutes to upend the Browns. Doak Walker gave the Lions a 10-3 lead, scoring on a 1-yard run and kicking a field goal and an extra point. Otto Graham struggled all day, but he led the Browns to a touchdown and 2 field goals as Cleveland took a 16-10 lead with 4:10 left. Quarterback Bobby Layne then moved the Lions from their 20 to the Browns' 33. The Lions' coaches called for a screen pass, but Layne changed the call and went deep, finding Jim Doran for the winning 33-yard touchdown with 2:10 left. Doran had 4 catches for 95 yards, including 3 for 68 on the final drive.

DETROIT 59, CLEVELAND 14—The Lions had a new coach and a new quarterback, but they still won their third title in six seasons. Coach Raymond (Buddy) Parker had quit before the season, but the Lions did not miss a beat under George Wilson. One of Wilson's first moves was to acquire quarterback Tobin Rote, who replaced an injured Bobby Layne late in the season. In this game, Rote passed for 280 yards and 4 touchdowns to lead the rout. After the Browns cut the Lions' lead to 17-7, Rote, on a fake field goal, fired a 26-yard scoring pass to Steve Junker. The Browns later closed to 31-14, but Rote answered again, this time with a 78-yard scoring strike to Jim Doran. Junker had 5 catches for 109 yards.

NFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

NEW YORK GIANTS 10, CLEVELAND 0—The Giants limited Cleveland to just 86 total yards to defeat the Browns. New York forced this playoff game with a last minute victory over Cleveland the week before. The teams traded turnovers until the Giants drove 84 yards for the game's only touchdown on a trick play. Frank Gifford ran 8 yards on a reverse, then pitched to Charlie Conerly, who ran 10 yards for a touchdown. The Giants added a field goal, then concentrated on stopping the Browns. Jim Brown, who had 1,527 rushing yards during the regular season, had just 8 yards on 7 carries.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

CLEVELAND 27, BALTIMORE 0—Frank Ryan and Gary Collins combined for 3 second-half touchdown passes to break open a close game and give the Browns the victory. What was expected to be a high scoring game turned into a scoreless first half as both teams played conservatively. In the second half, Cleveland turned a shanked punt by Baltimore into a field goal and then used a 46-yard run by Jim Brown to set up Ryan's 18-yard scoring pass to Collins. Ryan hit Collins again at the end of the third quarter for a 42-yard score and a 17-0 lead. Ryan capped the scoring with a 51-yard pass to Collins in the fourth quarter. Collins had 5 receptions for 130 yards, while Brown ran for 114 yards on 27 carries.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

GREEN BAY 23, CLEVELAND 12—Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor combined for 201 rushing yards while the Packers' defense shut down Jim Brown in the mud to give Green Bay the victory. The Packers built a 13-12 lead in a seesaw first half. In the second half, Green Bay's runners took over. Taylor carried on 12 of 24 plays as the Packers drove to a touchdown (Hornung's 13-yard run) and a field goal (29 yards by Don Chandler) and consumed 14 minutes. Hornung finished with 105 yards on 18 carries, while Taylor had 96 yards on 27 carries. Brown, who rushed for an NFL-high 1,544 yards during the regular season, managed only 50 yards.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

MINNESOTA 27, CLEVELAND 7—With snow stacked on the sidelines, the Vikings scored on each of their first two possessions and were never challenged en route to becoming the first expansion team to win a championship. Joe Kapp fired a 33-yard pass to Gene Washington to set up Kapp's 7-yard touchdown run for the game's first score. On the Vikings' next possession, Kapp hit Washington for a 75-yard scoring pass to give Minnesota a 14-0 lead. Dave Osborn's 20-yard scoring run made it 24-0 at halftime. Kapp passed for 169 yards and ran for 57. Washington had 3 catches for 120 yards, while Osborn ran for 108 yards.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 14, CLEVELAND 12—Safety Mike Davis' end-zone interception with 41 seconds remaining saved the Raiders' victory over the Browns. Playing in one-degree weather, Oakland drove 64 and 80 yards for its touchdowns, both coming on 1-yard runs by Mark van Eeghen. The latter score came with 9:22 remaining. The conditions and Raiders' defense combined to limit Brian Sipe to a 13-of-40 day, although he did drive the Browns 73 yards in the final minutes before throwing the fateful interception.

AFC WILD CARD

LOS ANGELES RAIDERS 27, CLEVELAND 10—Jim Plunkett passed for a career-high 386 yards to lead the Raiders over the Browns. Trailing 13-10, Cleveland was poised to take the lead until Raiders defensive end Lyle Alzado forced a fumble deep in Los Angeles territory. The Raiders then drove 89 yards to make it 20-10 on Marcus Allen's second touchdown run of the day. Frank Hawkins' 1-yard scoring run concluded the scoring. The Raiders set a club postseason record with 510 total yards, including 145 total yards by Allen.

JAN. 3, 1987 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CLEVELAND 23, NEW YORK JETS 20—Mark Moseley's 27-yard field goal 2:02 into the second overtime period gave the Browns the victory in the NFL's third longest game. Cleveland's Bernie Kosar set NFL postseason records for attempts (64) and yards (489). The Browns trailed 20-10 with 4:14 remaining in regulation, but Kosar marched Cleveland 58 yards for a touchdown and 37 yards for a field goal to force overtime. The Browns' defense recorded a playoff-record 9 sacks, including 3 by defensive end Carl Hairston.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DENVER 23, CLEVELAND 20—Rich Karlis' 33-yard field goal 5:38 into overtime gave the Broncos a dramatic victory over the Browns. Trailing 20-13, Denver assumed possession at its 2-yard line with 5:32 left in regulation. In 15 plays, John Elway drove the Broncos 98 yards to the tying touchdown on a 5-yard pass to Mark Jackson with 37 seconds left. Elway was 6 of 9 for 78 yards on the drive, including a key 20-yard completion to Jackson on third-and-18 from the Browns' 48. He also scrambled twice for 20 yards. After the Broncos forced the Browns to punt in overtime, Elway completed passes of 22 and 28 yards to lead a 60-yard drive to the winning field goal. Elway finished with 22 completions in 38 attempts for 244 yards. He also rushed for 56 yards on 4 carries. The Browns' Bernie Kosar completed 18 of 32 passes for 259 yards and 2 touchdowns, including a 48-yard scoring strike to Brian Brennan that gave Cleveland a 20-13 fourth-quarter lead.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CLEVELAND 38, INDIANAPOLIS 21—Bernie Kosar passed for 229 yards and 3 touchdowns to lead the Browns over the Colts. Kosar (10 yards to Earnest Byner and 39 yards to Reggie Langhorne) and the Colts' Jack Trudeau (2 yards to Pat Beach and 19 yards to Eric Dickerson) traded scoring passes as the teams battled to a 14-14 halftime tie. In the third quarter, Byner, who finished with 122 rushing yards, ran 2 yards for a score to cap an 86-yard drive and give the Browns a lead they did not relinquish. Kosar's third scoring strike highlighted the Browns' 17-point fourth quarter.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DENVER 38, CLEVELAND 33—Jeremiah Castille's fumble recovery at the 3-yard line with 1:05 to play preserved the Broncos' victory over the Browns. Denver built leads of 21-3 and 28-10 before Cleveland stormed back behind quarterback Bernie Kosar to tie the game at 31-31. The Broncos answered with a 75-yard drive, capped by John Elway's 20-yard scoring pass to Sammy Winder, to take a 38-31 lead with 4:01 left. The Browns took the ensuing kickoff and drove 67 yards to the Broncos' 8, where Earnest Byner took a hand-off and had a clear path to the tying score. But Castille stripped the ball from Byner, then recovered it at the 3-yard line to dash the Browns' hopes. Kosar completed 26 of 41 passes for 356 yards and 3 touchdowns, while Elway passed for 281 yards and 3 touchdowns.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CLEVELAND 34, BUFFALO 30—Clay Matthews' interception at the 1-yard line with 3 seconds to play preserved the Browns' win over the Bills. Buffalo quarterback Jim Kelly passed for 405 yards and 4 touchdowns, while his Cleveland counterpart, Bernie Kosar, had 3 scoring strikes. After the Bills pulled within 24-21 in the third quarter, Browns rookie Eric Metcalf returned the ensuing kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown and a 31-21 lead. The teams traded field goals, and then Kelly's fourth scoring pass made it 34-30. But the Bills missed the extra point, a mistake that proved crucial on their final drive when they had to try for the end zone instead of kicking a potential tying field goal.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DENVER 37, CLEVELAND 21—John Elway passed for 385 yards and 3 touchdowns to lead the Broncos to their third AFC title in four seasons. Elway tossed touchdown passes of 70 yards to wide receiver Michael Young and 5 yards to tight end Orson Mobley to help Denver build a 24-7 third-quarter lead. After Cleveland scored 2 quick touchdowns to pull close at 24-21, the Broncos answered by scoring on three of their four possessions in the fourth quarter. Elway hit Sammy Winder with a 39-yard touchdown, then David Treadwell kicked 34- and 31-yard field goals to clinch the victory. Elway completed 20 of 36 passes, and set club records for passing yards and total offense (424).

JAN. 1, 1995 AFC WILD CARD

CLEVELAND 20, NEW ENGLAND 13—Vinnie Testaverde threw for 268 yards and 1 touchdown and the Browns survived a late scare to beat the Patriots. After Matt Stover's 21-yard field goal with 3:36 remaining gave Cleveland a 20-10 advantage, the Patriots marched from their own 22-yard line to the Browns' 15. The drive stalled there, and Matt Bahr trimmed New England's deficit to seven points with a 33-yard field goal at the 1:30 mark. The Patriots recovered the ensuing onside kick and picked up a first down before four consecutive incompletions from their 48-yard line ended their comeback hopes. Testaverde completed 20 of 30 passes for the Browns, including a 5-yard touchdown to Mark Carrier in the second quarter. Michael Jackson caught 7 passes for 122 yards. Drew Bledsoe completed only 21 of 50 passes for 235 yards for New England and was intercepted 3 times.

JAN. 7, 1995 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 29, CLEVELAND 9—The Steelers scored on their first three possessions to open a 17-0 lead and went on to defeat the Browns for the third time this season. Pittsburgh dominated the first playoff meeting ever between these long-time rivals (they've played each other twice a year in the regular season since 1950), rushing for 238 yards while amassing 424 total yards and maintaining possession for 42:37 of the game's 60 minutes. Barry Foster ran for 133 yards on 24 carries, and rookie Byron (Bam) Morris added 60 yards on 22 attempts. Neil O'Donnell was efficient, completing 8 of his first 9 passes and finishing with 16 completions in 23 attempts for 186 yards. He threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Eric Green early in the second quarter and put the game out of reach with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen for a 24-3 lead just 16 seconds before halftime. That touchdown was set up by Tim McKyer's interception and 21-yard return to Cleveland's 6-yard line. It was 1 of 2 interceptions (safety Darren Perry had the other) of Vinny Testaverde, who was 13 of 31 for 144 yards. Testaverde received little help from Cleveland's running game, which managed only 55 yards. Ernie Mills caught 5 passes for 117 yards for the Steelers.

JAN. 5, 2003 AFC WILD CARD

PITTSBURGH 36, CLEVELAND 33—The NFL's comeback player of the year, Tommy Maddox, led the Steelers to 29 points in the final 19 minutes to overcome a 17-point deficit. On the game's third play, Kelly Holcomb, starting in place of the injured Tim Couch, connected on an 83-yard pass to Kevin Johnson to set up William Green's 1-yard run. A muffed punt by Antwaan Randle El early in the second quarter was followed on the next play by Holcomb's 32-yard touchdown pass to Dennis Northcutt. Randle El redeemed himself five minutes later with a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown. The Browns led 17-7 at halftime, and when Northcutt returned a punt 59 yards and three plays later caught a 15-yard touchdown pass, the Browns had a 17-point lead with 12:11 left in the third quarter. Maddox engineered touchdown drives of 71 and 65 yards, sandwiched around a Browns' field goal, but Holcomb's 22-yard touchdown pass to Andre' Davis with 10:17 left gave Cleveland a 33-21 lead. Two possessions later, the Steelers drove 77 yards, with the benefit of three Browns defensive penalties, and cut the deficit to 33-28 on Maddox's 5-yard scoring pass to Hines Ward with 3:06 left. Faced with third-and-12 on the ensuing possession, Northcutt dropped Holcomb's pass for what would have been a first down, and the Browns punted. Needing 61 yards with 2:35 remaining, Maddox completed 2 passes each to Plaxico Burress and Ward, and Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala scored from 3 yards out with 54 seconds left. The Browns reached the Steelers' 45 with seven seconds left, but Andre King could not get out of bounds on a 16-yard reception as time expired, thus denying Cleveland a game-tying field-goal opportunity. Maddox was 30 of 48 for 367 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 2 interceptions. Ward had 11 catches for 104 yards, and Burress added 6 receptions for 100 yards. Holcomb was 26 of 43 for 429 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Johnson had 4 catches for 140 yards.

Frank Minnifield—2005 inductee to the Cleveland Browns Legends.

Cleveland Browns Stadium is home not only to a storied football franchise but also to a dedicated, ardent, passionate group of people—the only group that can lay claim to the title of “World’s Greatest Fans.” At Cleveland Browns Stadium, fans take pride in supporting their team in a safe, enthusiastic and family-oriented atmosphere. This special combination of sportsmanship and exhilaration makes Sunday afternoons with the Browns a memorable and momentous experience.

Cleveland Browns Stadium was built on the hallowed ground of the old Municipal Stadium. There’s no better place than on the lakefront for the home of the Cleveland Browns than where legendary coach Paul Brown established Cleveland’s first football dynasty in the 1940s. No other site could have been as appropriate as the location where 15 Cleveland Browns—Jim Brown, Paul Brown, Joe DeLamielleure, Len Ford, Frank Gatski, Otto Graham, Lou Groza, Leroy Kelly, Dante Lavelli, Mike McCormack, Bobby Mitchell, Marion Motley, Ozzie Newsome, Paul Warfield and Bill Willis—established their credentials for induction into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in nearby Canton.

While the location of the Stadium honors the glorious history of athletic achievements in Cleveland, Cleveland Browns Stadium is a celebration of the city’s renaissance, drawing people to the lakefront every day. The crown jewel of the Northcoast Harbor, Cleveland Browns Stadium is located next to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Great Lakes Science Center. When visiting the Stadium, it is impossible to miss the distinctive architectural design of the columns, beams and notches in the seating bowl. These spacious gaps allow visitors to get an inside perspective of the Stadium and field when the Browns are away and allow ticket holders to see the downtown skyline during the game.

At night, Cleveland Browns Stadium lights up the lakefront. Beams and columns are highlighted by a halo of light that can be seen from downtown and the Northcoast Harbor. Day or night, whether the team is playing home or away, Cleveland Browns Stadium brings a new excitement to Cleveland.

The Cleveland Browns Training and Administrative Complex is located in Berea, Ohio, on 13 acres of land. The building, which originally opened in August 1991, was renovated in the spring of 1999 and is currently undergoing further renovations and expansion. Recent renovations include an expanded weight room (7,500 sq. ft.), a new players' lounge, a complete lobby restoration and 120 new theater seats in the team meeting room. A sparkling new 14,000 sq. ft. addition to the administration building opened December 2, 2002, and features the Dino Lucarelli Media Center, which includes a media work room, press conference room, interview rooms and media flex space. The expansion also included 14 new offices for coaches and football administration, storage and a new shipping/receiving area. Current construction will create new executive offices.

Existing features in the state-of-the-art facility include a field house of 60,000 sq. ft. with a 70-yard field, a 3,100 sq. ft. athletic training room, a 1,280 sq. ft. team meeting room, individual meeting rooms for position meetings, a 2,700 sq. ft. players' locker room with room for more than 90 lockers and a restaurant-style kitchen for meal preparation. The complex also hosts three regulation-size natural grass practice fields ideal for year-round football operations, including the team's training camps.

2006 TRAINING CAMP

The Cleveland Browns begin preparations for the 2006 season by officially opening training camp on July 26 at the club's training and administrative complex in Berea, Ohio. Training camp practices conclude in mid-August. All practices are open to the public free of charge.

CLEVELAND BROWNS TRAINING CAMP HISTORY

The training and administrative complex is host to the Browns 2006 training camp, which marks the 12th time (1992-95, 1999-2006) the Browns have conducted training camp at the facility.

THE DINO LUCARELLI MEDIA CENTER

The Dino Lucarelli Media Center, which opened in December of 2002 at the Browns Training and Administrative Complex in Berea, features an expansive media work room, two radio/television interview rooms, a kitchen and private locker space for media members.

Lucarelli, 70, has been working with Cleveland media for nearly 50 years and has been affiliated with the Cleveland Browns organization since 1975 with responsibilities in player relations and media services. He currently serves as the club's Manager of Alumni Relations and is a panelist on the Cleveland Browns Legends Club committee. Lucarelli called the naming of the media center "one of the biggest thrills of my life."

The Cleveland Chapter of the Professional Football Writers Association (PFWA) has named its "Good Guy Award" for Lucarelli. The Good Guy Award is given annually for cooperation with the media and for the way a player carries himself in the community and with his teammates. The National Football Foundation (Northeast Ohio Chapter) Lifetime Achievement Award is also named for Lucarelli.

Community outreach has been and will remain important to the Cleveland Browns. Through community relations and the combined efforts of the Cleveland Browns Foundation and the Lerner Family Foundation, Browns fans will not only follow the excitement on the field this season, they will witness the excitement off the field as well. The 2006 season will mark the beginning of a new era in the community as the Browns introduce redefined core community programs to benefit Northeast Ohio. With the belief that connecting education, health & wellness, and neighborhood enhancement as the pillars of our team's commitment to the community, the Browns strive to strengthen the mind, body and heart of greater Cleveland's children, families and neighbors through our spirit and tradition.

VISION VAN

Head Coach Romeo Crennel

The Cleveland Browns and the Cleveland Clinic Foundation Cole Eye Institute will begin a partnership this season to provide free eye exams to students in the Cleveland Municipal School District who are in need. In addition to the free eye exams, children who need glasses will receive them free of charge through this program. The Cleveland Browns Vision Van will visit over 80 elementary schools throughout the course of the year, beginning with the unveiling of the vehicle this fall.

WHAT MOVES U?

The Browns have partnered with the American Heart Association to improve the health and fitness amongst today's youth. Taking a unique approach, the NFL has worked with teachers across the nation to create a curriculum that incorporates physical activity components throughout each subject studied for students 9-13 years old. The Browns program will launch for the 2006-2007 school year during which students will be challenged with the question "What Moves U?"

READ WITH THE BROWNS

The Browns are entering the third year of a collaboration with the Cuyahoga County Public Library to encourage the love of reading amongst children and their families through the Read with the Browns program. Through the program, youth can visit their local Cuyahoga County Public Library branch to become involved in fun activities geared towards reading and the Cleveland Browns. The program also is available to fans nationwide, who can log onto www.clevelandbrowns.com and read a children's book along with a different Browns player every two weeks.

CANCER AWARENESS

Nearly everyone knows someone who has had their life abruptly altered due to cancer. The Browns hope to bring awareness to this disease, and encourage the quest to find a cure. Focusing on breast cancer awareness, the Browns will continue selling charitable pink hats for the cause, and will once again partner with National City Bank in October to help combat this disease. In addition, the Browns were proud to support the annual PanCAN walk this summer to raise awareness of pancreatic cancer.

CITY OF CLEVELAND

City of Cleveland—Charlie Frye and Brodney Pool

With attention to education and neighborhood enhancement, the Browns work with the city to bring awareness to key issues related to the future of our children. Several Browns players are committed to motivating children in the classroom, as well as making positive decisions on the streets.

G.R.E.A.T.

The Browns Foundation will work with G.R.E.A.T. (Gang Resistance Education And Training) to help prevent youth crime, violence, and gang involvement among school-aged youth in the community. Joining the US Marshall's office, local sports teams, and impact community organizations, the Browns look forward to working to achieve safer schools and communities by reducing youth involvement in gangs.

WORKING WITH CHILDREN

Children are the focus of the Cleveland Browns community outreach endeavors, and the Browns pay extra attention to kids with special abilities. Throughout the year, the Browns will work with organizations tailored towards kids with restrictions, whether physical or health related, to provide memorable Browns opportunities for these children and their families. Whether at the Browns Draft Day Party, Training Camp, or on Game Day, the Browns will have these VIP guests as part of our team.

THE CLEVELAND BROWNS FOUNDATION

Founded in 1999, the Cleveland Browns Foundation was created to provide assistance to those in need. Over the years, the Browns Foundation programs have grown to advance development in core areas that were beginning to lose attention. Recently, the Browns Foundation and the Lerner Family Foundation have aligned to ensure the community is receiving support in the areas it is needed most. Together as a team, we look forward to making a lasting impact in Northeast Ohio with the fans support of Cleveland Browns Foundation fundraisers.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Keeping kids healthy is the first step in providing them with opportunities to succeed. The Cleveland Browns are dedicated to improving the health and well-being of children in our community. Therefore we proudly supported the Cleveland Municipal School District Physical Fitness Competitions which reward kids for staying physically fit. Additionally, these competitions teach children to make healthy decisions, such as maintaining a healthy diet and avoid harmful substances.

The Cleveland Browns also recognize the importance of using the game of football as a vehicle to effectuate change in our communities. It is to that end that we attempt to provide every child with an opportunity to get in the game. Through Browns Football Camps and NFL Junior Player Development Camps, we reach thousands of children each year, teaching them basic football skills and the important life lessons that accompany the game. We provide scholarship opportunities for disadvantaged children to attend Browns Football Camps held at our practice facility each summer.

For our high school student-athletes we hosted the National High School All-Star Combine and the Elite Skills Camp and Recruitment Night events. Both events afforded high school football players the opportunity to showcase their athletic abilities in front of recruiters from colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Further, we invite youth football players and their chaperones to cheer on the Cleveland Browns at one of our preseason games. As a part of the NFL initiative, "Play Football Month," we also select youth football players to be a part of our preseason pre-game festivities and to take part in our halftime exhibition during the preseason game.

Finally, we offered opportunities for kids to gain a closer look inside of the Browns' business. Internship opportunities and special programming allow kids to join our team and learn the business of journalism, design, filmmaking, photography and much more. These valuable work and volunteer experiences allow kids a first-hand look inside a professional sports team.

Browns Backers Worldwide (BBW), the official worldwide fan club of the Cleveland Browns, is considered to be one of the largest organized fan clubs in all of professional sports. The BBW includes over 45,000 registered members and over 270 Clubs worldwide.

Browns Backers Worldwide exists as a non-profit organization to actively support and positively promote the Cleveland Browns. Browns Backer Clubs organize various activities and events throughout the year to represent and cheer on the Browns. Some of these activities and events include gathering for game days, marching in local parades, and teeing off at golf outings. Browns Backer Clubs also participate in philanthropic events in their local communities and help to raise money for the Cleveland Browns Foundation.

Whether you are an individual member of the worldwide Club, or a member of your local chapter, all Browns Backers receive exclusive benefits, opportunities and the most up-to-date information on the Cleveland Browns. Benefits include:

- Official Browns Backer Worldwide membership card
- Browns Backer auto decal

CLEVELAND BROWNS RADIO NETWORK

The Cleveland Browns awarded radio broadcast rights to Clear Channel Communications. WMMS (100.7 FM) is the flagship station of the Browns Radio Network, and Browns-related programming is featured on other Clear Channel stations as well. The radio network includes nearly 40 affiliates and reaches Browns fans in five states.

The talent line-up for the Cleveland Browns Radio Network Broadcast Team features WKYC Channel 3 Sports Director Jim Donovan as the play-by-play announcer, former Browns offensive tackle Doug Dieken as analyst, WTAM Sports Director Mike Snyder as the host of all game day programming, WTAM Sports Anchor Casey Coleman as field and locker room reporter, and former Browns cornerback Hanford Dixon provides analysis on the pre-game show.

The NFL announced the regular-season scheduling rotation for eight seasons (2002-09) under the club-approved realignment plan that began in the 2002 season. The interconference and intraconference divisional matchups—comprising 14 of each season's 16 regular-season games—for the next eight seasons were determined following extensive analysis and discussion with NFL clubs.

The eight season schedules will take each team through a cycle of games—home and away—against every other team in the league. In eight seasons, every team will play every other team at least twice—once home and once away.

CLEVELAND BROWNS MEDIA GUIDELINES

Training Camp: Credentials for training camp are issued by the Browns' public relations office. Those outlets not covering the club on a daily basis must contact the public relations office one day prior to arrival. ALL media are required to show a photo ID and sign in before attending practice. Credentials must be worn at all times.

Reporters and photographers accredited for camp are requested to remain within designated areas on the perimeter of the fields. No media members will be allowed in the areas between the two practice fields. Photographers and videographers are requested to stand 10 yards off the sidelines. Camera equipment must be attended to at all times. CAMERA TRIPODS ARE NOT ALLOWED ON THE PRACTICE FIELDS. Any member of the media wishing to interview a Browns' assistant coach must first receive clearance from the club's public relations department. Please notify anyone on the public relations staff of these requests as soon as possible to ensure your needs can be facilitated. Head Coach Romeo Crennel will address the media at the conclusion of the final practice each day.

Regular Season: Only local media will be allowed to attend regular season practices. Reporters and photographers are requested to remain within designated areas on the perimeter of the fields. No media members will be allowed in the areas between the two practice fields. Photographers and videographers are requested to stand 10 yards off the sidelines. Camera equipment must be attended to at all times. CAMERA TRIPODS ARE NOT ALLOWED ON THE PRACTICE FIELDS. The Browns locker room will be open for player interviews on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Any member of the media wishing to interview a Browns' assistant coach must first receive clearance from the club's public relations department. Please notify anyone on the public relations staff of these requests as soon as possible to ensure your needs can be facilitated. Head Coach Romeo Crennel will hold a weekly news conference each Monday and will be available to the media on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. There will be no interviews granted on Saturdays during the season except for network TV.

CLEVELAND BROWNS STADIUM MEDIA GUIDELINES

Booths: Radio and television broadcast booths are located to the east of the working press area on the same level.

Dark Rooms: Dark rooms are located in the Northwest corridor on the service level.

Entry: The media entrance is located on the North side of the Stadium off Erieside Avenue, across from the Port Authority Parking lots.

Locker Room Access: Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-12 minute cooling-off period. The media elevator will transport members of the press that wish to visit the locker room with five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevators to the Service/Locker Room Level and follow signs or ask for directions from Guest Services staff to home and visitor locker rooms.

Media Relations: The Cleveland Browns Communications staff will be located at the East end of the working press box. The Communications staff will also have an office in the press box, located behind the seating on the South side of the working press box area.

Media Room (Field Level): The media room, which will serve meals to sideline media prior to the game and at halftime, is located adjacent to the television truck parking area. Flip cards, releases and game statistics will also be distributed to sideline media from this room.

Parking: Members of the media that obtain parking passes will find parking on the North side of the Stadium. Only media members with properly displayed parking passes will be allowed in the media lot.

Press Box: The Cleveland Browns Stadium Press Box houses both print and electronic media on the same level. Upon exiting the media elevator, follow directions to the press box and dining area.

Pre-game Meals: Pre-game meals will be served buffet style in the spacious press box dining area. While dining, guests may keep up with all of the game action around the National Football League through television monitors mounted above the working area of the press box that display replays, statistics, scores and action from around the league.

Post-Game Interview Areas: Following the conclusion of the game, the head coach for each team will address the media from designated interview areas.

Statistics and Materials: Statistics will be distributed to each seat throughout the game and full play-by-plays will be available approximately 20 minutes following the conclusion of each contest. The Browns media relations staff will distribute all statistics and material from the copy room located in the Media Room behind the working press box area.

Will Call: Members of the media needing to pick up their passes at the game will find the media will-call booth located at the Southwest corner of the Stadium and the press gate entrance is located at the Northwest corner of Cleveland Browns Stadium.
